Alma Mater

Beside the highway where the crowds are passing,
Stands Andrew Jackson, proud Academy.
And all will find who seek within her portals,
A wealth of wisdom, truth, and loyalty.
Dear Andrew Jackson we will sing thy praises
And lift on high thy banner to the sky.
Thy lofty aims will be our inspiration
To deeds of honor
As the years go by.

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same,

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I -
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.
