Look To The Memories

*Memories are the times of the past;
That you wish would only last.
The times and the people who were only so dear,
Which comes suddenly just to disappear.
Your heart is full of sorrow,
But you can only look for tomorrow.
And when tomorrow is finally here,
Look to the memories to reappear.
But don't let the memories fade away;
Because they were here once and meant for to stay.
And as for the loved ones that past away,
Look to the memories as we may pray.
And as we turn old;
The memories that we've kept are as precious as gold.*

This poem was written by Wendy Brandt. It has been published in the National Beta Club Magazine and the Bamberg Advertiser-Herald.

As the final pages of the 1984 Jacksonian takes shape, I recall all the hard work which was put into making this annual a reality and not just a dream. It was a challenge for both the staff and our sponsors. A lot of memories were recorded in this book, and I hope it will be an annual you will long remember. I had a TERRIFIC STAFF to work along side me this year, and I would like to thank each one of them: LeVerne, Melissa, Wanda, Kathy, Miriam, Christy, Angie and my sponsors, Miss Beth Hiers and Miss Paula Kirkland. I also want to thank Mr. Jack Young, Mr. Jerry Morris, Rev. Gary Phillips, Olan Mills Studios, Mrs. Meg Herndon, the office, staff, students and parents of AJA. Most of all the parents of the annual staff members.

Thank you for making my Senior Year a wonderful one, and I wish all the luck in the world to next year's annual staff.
