The 1984-85 Jacksonian is dedicated to a special friend. He means a great deal to our school. If it weren't for him, Andrew Jackson Academy would not be open. We all owe him a great deal of appreciation for everything he has done. CONGRATULATIONS!

Mr. Padgett, Headmaster

The 1984-85 Jacksonian is presented in memory of Jeffrey Tuten, a true Confederate. We will always have very fond memories of him through the years here at AJA.

Senior's Last Words

The Class of '85 bids farewell to a part of our lives that we will always treasure, our friends at AJA. The memories we have made will remain in our hearts always. Although we leave AJA to our past, it has helped to prepare us for our future. WE LOVE YOU ALL!

Farewell,
Class of '85

The publishing of the 1985 Jacksonian has been a big challenge and a lot of hard work. I hope that each one of you will have good memories of your life here at Andrew Jackson Academy. I would like to thank the members of the staff, Miss Paula Kirkland, Mrs. Libby Murdaugh, and Mrs. Joette Hiers for their support, work, and encouragement. I would also like to thank Mr. Jack Young, and Mr. Charlie Tumbleston.
