

The eighth grade class is filled with smart, good-looking, and crazy people. Each of us has our own individual qualities. Many of us are crazy and wild, while some are quiet and subdued. Put together we make one totally outrageous class!

