

Seventh grade offers many opportunities to our class of twelve students. Some are tapped to be members of the Junior Beta Club. Others choose to be involved in Junior Varsity football, basketball, and cheerleading. One student represents us on the Student Council, while another serves as reporter for our school newspaper — The Confederate. Several work on the Jacksonian staff. Each students has the privilege of being a good citizen.

