A Special Tribute

As I sat and thought about whom the 1990 Jacksonian should be dedicated to, one special person stood out in my mind. This person is dedicated, hardworking, and reliable. We, the annual staff, depend on him for delivering our pictures for the Jacksonian. In September, Charlie's studio in Charleston was completely destroyed from the effects of Hurricane Hugo; nevertheless, he worked diligently to make our 1990 Jacksonian a reality! Mr. Charles Tumbleston, we thank you for being dependable, cooperative, and understanding!

HUGO

As the 20th Century drew to a close, on September 21-22, 1989, Hurricane Hugo devastated the lives, hope, and progress of the South Carolina Low country. It's forceful, speeding winds ripped roofs off houses, uprooted trees, broke powerlines, shattered windows, and completely destroyed many houses on the coast. Although other Hurricanes have taken more lives, Hugo was the most devastating storm ever.

“A Touch Of Class”

Jr.-Sr. Prom

1989

Once a year, the gymnasium gets a real “Touch of Class” as the Juniors turn the rugged basketball court into an elegant ballroom. Students, parents, and faculty spend a great amount of time and money to make this big event a night to remember. From finding a perfect dress & hairstyle to the most impressive tuxedo and car, each minute detail has to be just right.

An All School Event With Pizazz

As parents, grandparents, friends, and relatives crowded into the gym, every contestant was nervously preparing for their debut on stage. While glittering stars and puffy clouds set the scene of "Must Be Heaven," an intense feeling floated through the air as everyone awaited for the coronation of our new Queens.

Just where were you the night the lights went out? Not only was everyone in the dark, but they were also at the AJA gym watching intently as the Kindergarten clowns performed. When darkness suddenly overcame the festive event, total chaos broke out as all of the little children frantically screamed for their mom. Even after being postponed to a later date, "Star Search '89" proved to be a success!

A Classic Goodbye

We express our gratitude to everyone who has attributed to our education. The years we have spent here at AJA will always be special. We leave with sadness but also with great hopes of a bright future. As we go our separate ways in life, we will cherish the fond memories of AJA. By having such a solid background, we know the obstacles that lie ahead of us will be easily overcome. Again, we thank our parents, teachers, and friends for all your support, care, and love. We love you all!

Exchange Student Adds German Life

For the first time, Andrew Jackson Academy has the honor of welcoming a foreign exchange student to our student body. Felix Streiter from Bonn, Germany, joined our AJA family in August. Felix is 16 years old. At home Felix enjoys playing with his dog, Pu (Pooh), an English Shepherd.

Being a foreign exchange student has been a learning experience for Felix as well as for us. For Felix, adjusting to the American ways has been sometimes humorous and difficult.

"I envy Felix' courage for coming to a new school in a different country," commented Missy Smith.

Debbie said, "People in other countries are not that different from us." "I think for everything he has learned here, he has taught us something about Germany."

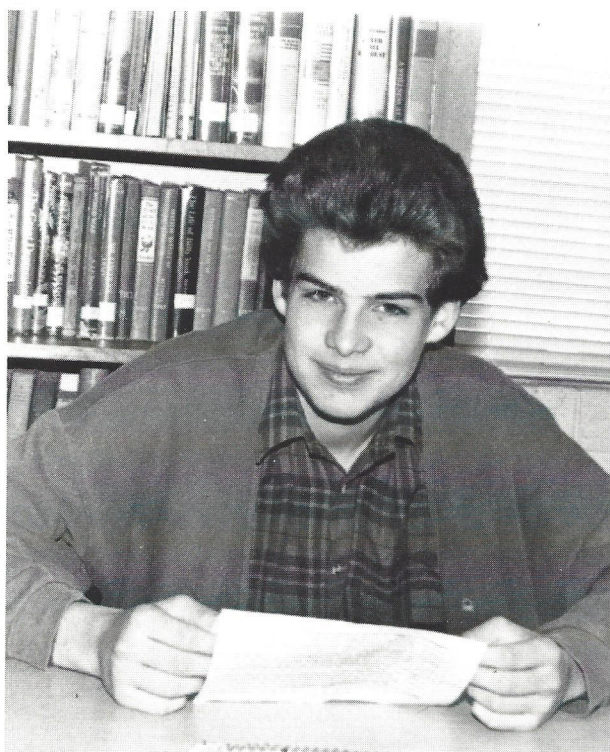

Cindy remarked that she loved to hear Felix speak in German, because she may never get the chance to hear the language again.

Phil remarked, "Felix is one of the coolest people I know!"

"If he sees or hears something he does not understand, he gives a strange look — this is a signal that a question is on the way!" states Ashley.

Dione believes that Felix is an extremely easy person to get along with and fits in with the crowd well.

Each of us have benefited from Felix' stay here. He has helped to broaden our knowledge concerning cultures that are different from ours. In summary, Cam says it best! "We've gained a life-long friend."

Felix . . .

- makes us laugh and smile all the time!
- taught us patience!

- role model for us
- likes golf despite the fact that it took him 17 strokes for a par 4 hole!
- anticipated arrival of Hugo as if it were a party!
- doesn't like loud music!
- has never driven a car!
- has been a unique experience for us! We will miss him!!

Making A Good Thing Better . . .

Even if something is good, there is always a way to make it better! Mitch believes that building a new concession stand helped to make our school better. "It is a good thing to go to a movie but even better to go to a drive-in," stated Brad. Michael said, "It is a good thing to have a date, but it is even better when she pays!" "Making a good thing better is getting all of your bonus questions right after you have already made 100 on the test!" stated Brian. Shannon thinks being a Junior is great, but things would be better if we were Seniors!

Classic Decisions

Each person must make decisions each day. "As we get older, we have to learn to be more reliable and to make our own decisions," said Ralph. Ron commented that his hardest decision was deciding whether to play sports or not. Shannon Brandt feels that girls often have to choose which guys to date. Brandi remarked, "Making decisions is very difficult; however, with the help of parents, friends, and God we are able to hopefully make the right decision."

Classic Boredom . . .

“Boredom is an empty and lonely feeling. You want so badly to do something,” stated James. Chasity commented that boredom makes one feel inactive and weary. Staying in all day while it is raining outside is boredom to Jennifer. AJA students enjoy a variety of entertainment. "Entertainment is anything that you like to do and don't have to do," stated Rhonda. Brandon enjoys hunting deer, birds, and squirrels. "Listening to the radio is very entertaining for me," stated Elizabeth. Hanging around with friends is what Joy enjoys. Talking on the phone, playing sports, playing Nintendo games, and reading a good book are other areas of entertainment for them.

Classically Loveable

What does it mean to be loveable? Ask any seventh grader, and they will quickly tell you that being loveable has a multitude of traits. According to Charlie, "A loveable person treats you the way you want to be treated." "A person who you can respect and love is another characteristic," says Julie. Anel Brandt thinks that being loveable is someone who is fun to be around.

By the time a student enters the 3rd grade, he has become an ol' pro. He knows how to read, write, and study by himself. He even knows how to dress himself in the morning. The only thing a 3rd grader does not know is his multiplication tables.

Small But Great

Even though the second grade was small, the excitement and eagerness to learn was not. Whether they were studying math or learning to play chess at the back table, they tackled the job with a world of enthusiasm.

Entering the first grade is a historical moment in any child's life. It's the beginning of a new and sometimes exciting life with other young kids. Not only is this time exciting, but it's also an important time for building ones academic and social skills. Each first grader enjoys a variety of first grade activities. # Classic Pride

"Conditioning and Defense are the keys to a successful basketball season!" states the Varsity Boys.

Dedication is what kept the Mighty Confederates alive in the '89-'90 basketball season. Even after the long, strenuous hours of practice with Coach Moore, each player seemed to put forth a little more effort. Because of their eager desire to win, the Varsity Boys made many people proud to be a Confederate.

Leadership

Senior, Michael B. states, "Sometimes we felt as if we couldn't make it through practice, but that's what it takes to be the best!"

Senior, Phil C. states, "When we started, people didn't think we could win, but we proved them wrong. Now our goal is to make it to Sumter."

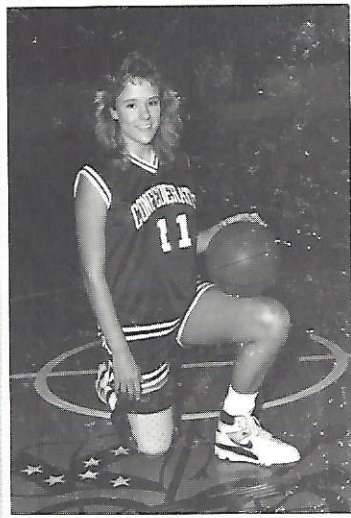

Senior, Madison C. remarks, "When you reach the Varsity level with Coach Moore, you will definitely learn to run!!"

A Tough Act To Follow

“Through teamwork, dedication, and alot of extra effort during the hardest practices, we managed to ‘take it to ‘em’ with a successful season” states Senior Melissa.

“With Mr. William’s encouragement, our fan’s dedication, and all our hours of hard practice, we knew we would be a winning team!” states Amy.

“Mr. William has a way of making every player feel special. His faith in us has given us faith in ourselves!” exclaims Debbie.

Classic Success

“Practice became our way of life, as we were expected to give it our all!” stated the Lady Confederates.

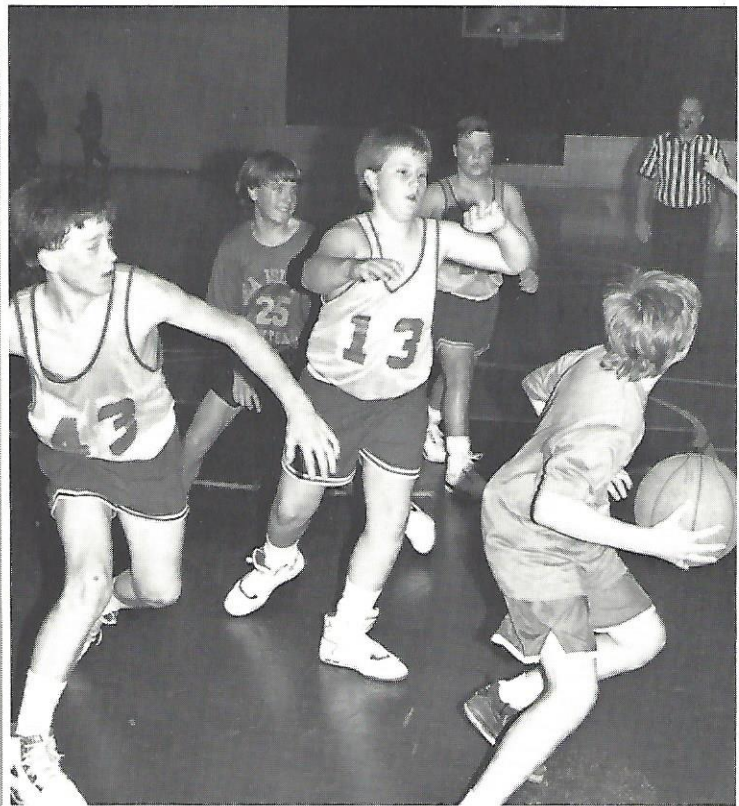

Teamwork was the key to the success of the Varsity Girls Basketball team! While the rest of their friends were relaxing at home, the dedicated Lady Confederates were trudging up and down the basketball court improving their skills and striving to be their best! Each player contributed some special ability to help make our team outstanding.

Homecoming without a game? Yes, it is possible! AJA students and fans experienced an unusual "Gameless" Homecoming! Nevertheless, our Confederate pride still radiated throughout the entire school as all students participated in Spirit Week. When Friday night finally arrived, everyone crowded into the gym patiently waiting for the presentation of the 1989 Miss Confederate and Homecoming candidates to be presented. After the lovely ladies and their escorts made an eye-catching assembly Mrs. Stanley crowned Melissa Moore, Varsity Homecoming Queen; Ashley Manuel, 1st Runner Up; Tina Long, JV Homecoming Queen; and Amy Waltz, 1st Runner Up. Cruising on the Costa Riviera is the biggest dream of being a Senior! The only obstacle is the cost of the cruise, but we worked hard to raise this money. Not only did we sell doughnuts every month, but we also sold fruit, sponsored the Powderpuff game, and held many raffles at school. Our biggest projects were a B-B-Que Chicken dinner, the cow plop, and the Teacher Trash, where you smashed your "favorite" teacher's name on a wrecked car. After alot of effort, we look forward to our cruise in June.

FACES OF THE

The Heart Of The 1990 Jacksonian

Melissa — Editor
Monica — Co-Editor

Serving as editor of the 1990 Jacksonian has really been a challenging experience. Without the assistance of a dedicated staff and guidance of Miss Paula and Mrs. Joette, our Jacksonian would not have been able to overcome the terrible consequences of Hurricane Hugo nor the tragic fire of my home. I sincerely appreciate the entire staff's patience, durability, and hard work throughout the year. As I present to you a true "Confederate Classic," I hope that each of you enjoy the memories that this Jacksonian has to offer. Once again, a special thanks to everyone who helped make the 1990 yearbook the best that it could be!!
