

SPREADING THE SPIRIT

Cheerleading for many of us this year was a first time experience. At the beginning it was fun and games, but then we realized that cheerleading requires dedication and a great amount of effort. We practiced hard at camp for football season. Whether we were practicing our dance or learning new cheers, everyone was full of excitement and enthusiasm. We may not be noticed, but cheerleaders possess true school spirit.

Stacey

Heather

Christy