Now we can make a believer out of Miss Paula.

Wear short shorts and you can be in style like me.

Who says we can't sit on the top bleacher? We're juniors!!

Oh, my gosh!! I hope Mrs. Stanley doesn't find out!

NINETEEN

Have It Your Way

Students at AJA like to have it their way! That is they love to break the rules. AJA's rules that is. They sat on the top bleacher, showed affection, wore shorts too short, and worst of all, seized control of the teachers! The students decided that they had had enough and started doing things their way. What you are about to see in the rest of this book is going to be AJA's way . . . the student's way that is . . . of doing things. So just sit back and enjoy.

Dedication

Mrs. Evelyn Rentz

The 1992 Jacksonian is dedicated to MRS. EVELYN RENTZ. Mrs. Evelyn, as she is affectionately called, has given many years of dedicated teaching to the students who have attended Andrew Jackson Academy. She has given students extra help, advice, a friendly smile, or sometimes a stern reprimand. Mrs. Evelyn taught sixth grade for a number of years before advancing to high school! She now teaches biology, English and math. She also sponsors the Beta Club. "Mrs. Evelyn, be assured that we love you and appreciate all that you have done and will do to prepare us academically and socially for the future."

Beside The Highway

"Now what did you say this was?" questions Angel

"Joseph," says Christy, "that was so funny, I forgot to laugh!"

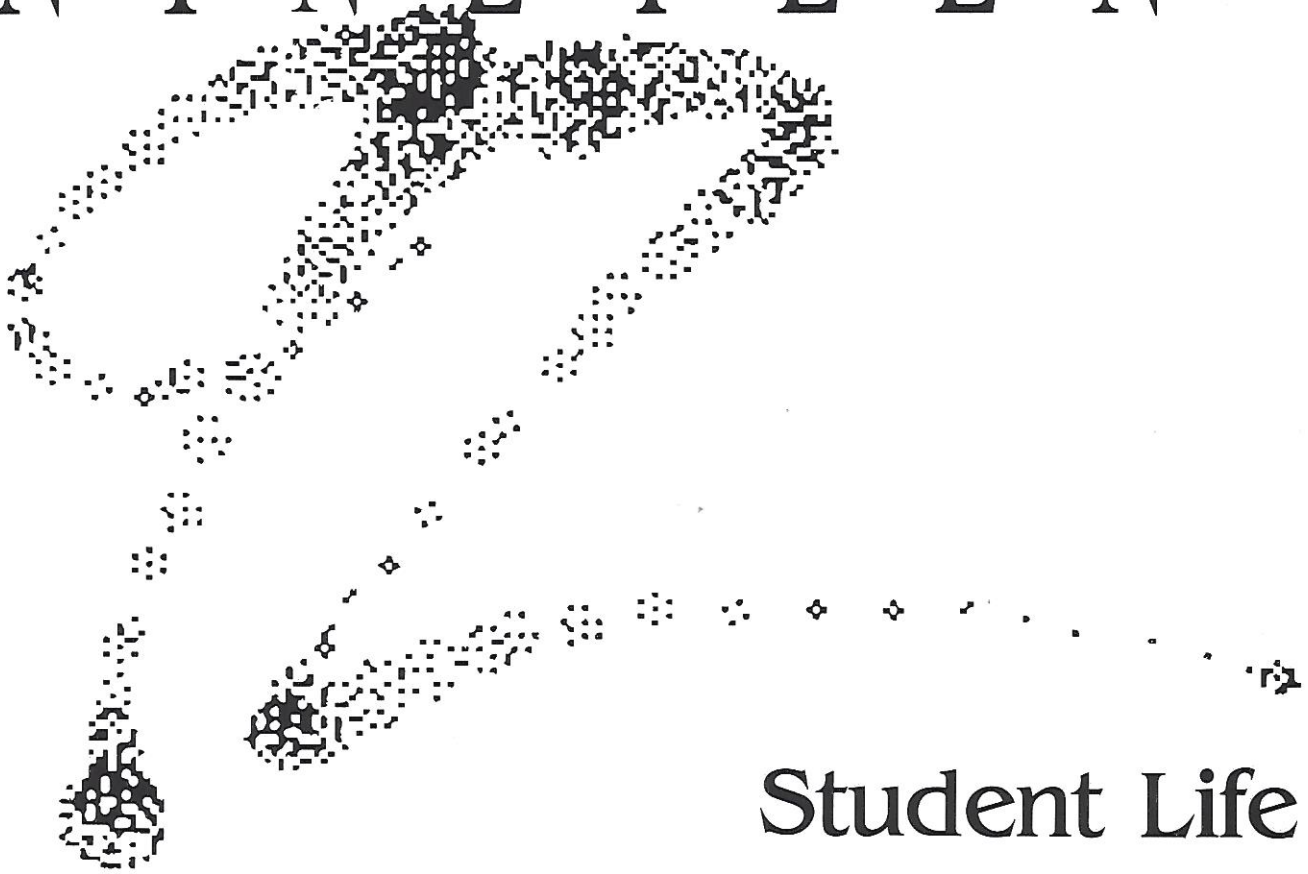

"Do we really look like we're up to something?"

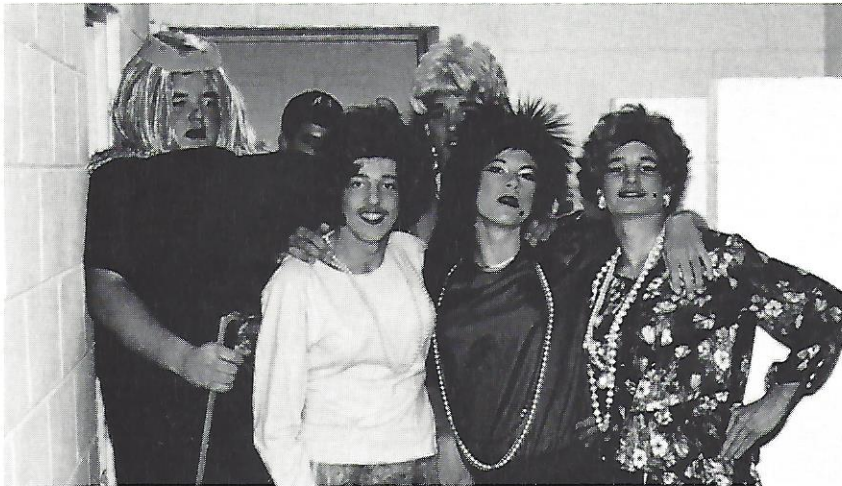

"We're number one and we always will be," expresses Jennifer, Kristi, and Angel.

Student Life

Our unique students here at AJA make many events their student life. Joking, talking, or just playing around produces an air of character among the students. Many students take interest in academics, sports, and the other activities that AJA has to offer to them. Student life is very important to AJA. If we didn't have the spirit, it would be a dull school.

STUDENT LIFE

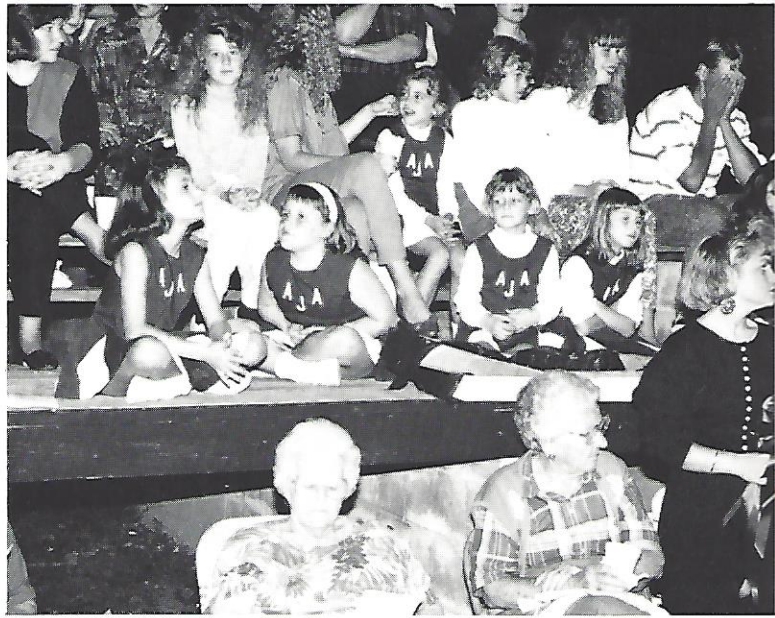

AJA 20th Anniversary

Homecoming is always an exciting time at AJA. Confederate pride starts at the beginning of the week when all students participate in Spirit Week. On Thursday, the Homecoming Pep Rally was held in the gym. A special presentation was made this year. Some of the varsity football players dressed as cheerleaders and did cheers for the crowd.

The Varsity Homecoming Queen is voted on by all students in grades 9-12. After the lovely ladies and their escorts made an eye-catching assembly, Mrs. Stanley crowned Miss Greta Lightsey, Miss Varsity Homecoming Queen. Miss Kristi Sease was 1st runner-up.

The 1991 JV Homecoming Queen is Miss Barbie Kinard and the 1st runner-up is Miss Heather Hawkins. After the crowning by Mrs. Stanley, a big game was still to be played. AJA Confederates came through with a 44-14 victory over Lord Berkeley Cavaliers.

Miss Confederate is chosen by the Varsity football players and cheerleaders. After all the young ladies were escorted onto the field, they announced that Miss Joy Ackerman escorted by Chris Williams was the 1st runner-up. Winning the coveted title of Miss Confederate was Miss Jennifer Connelly, escorted by Shane Sease.

Having Fun Our Way

Harvest Carnival

Our annual Harvest Carnival was not held at the traditional Halloween time of the year. Everyone still had a blast. The younger children and a few of the older ones had fun playing games such as fishing, guess the pennies, break the record and pop the balloons. Other games included bingo and target shooting. Areas of interest for the mature in mind, but young at heart were the auctions, arts & crafts, and baked goods.

High school students supported their school by playing bingo at the Harvest Carnival.

Do you think these young ladies are nervous?

Strangely but surely, these are really the Sr. guys with Miss Paula.

Kristi Sease was chosen Miss Congeniality in the Miss competition.

An almost to life carousel with pink, purple, and white set off our stage. It not only enhanced the beauty of our stage, but it symbolized the dream for each contestant of withholding one of the 1992 Miss Andrew Jackson Academy titles. In addition, all the contestants were indeed the true beauty that enrich Andrew Jackson Academy.

The evening was filled with gorgeous girls, singing by both Keith Blanton and Carla Stewart, and dancing by Chasity Brandt. Even the Mr.-Miss contestants added character within the night.

Through it all four lucky ladies had their dream come true by the end of the evening. Our new 1992 Miss AJA was Elizabeth Nipper, runner-up was Greta Lightsey. Kristi Sease was chosen Miss Congeniality by the Miss contestants. Kimberly Carter proudly holds the Jr. Miss title, with Christy Jones runner-up. Kendall Carter also wears the Grammar Miss title, as Jody Martin stood as her runner-up. Rachael Stewart was crowned Little Miss AJA, and Darlene Brown placed runner-up. Last but not least, Chris Tina Puddina Williams better known as Chris Williams was crowned our 1992 Mr.-Miss Andrew Jackson Academy.

A Traditional Way

May Day 1991

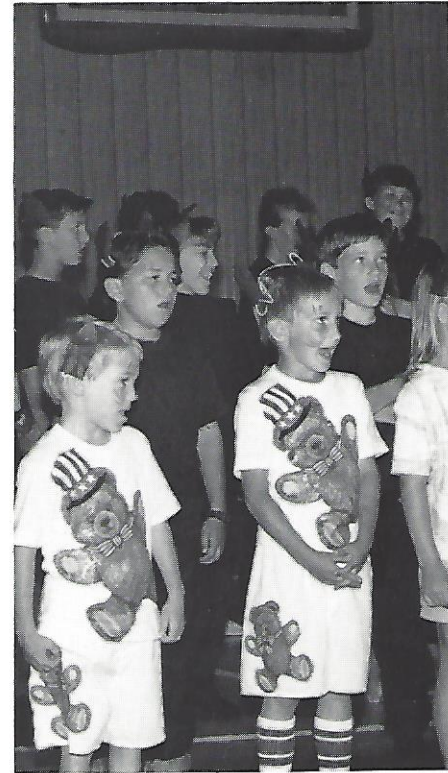

Ready for the beach, the second graders tell why it's a favorite spot!

May Day has definitely become a traditional way at Andrew Jackson Academy. Throughout the years, we have seen many performances. The May Pole, crowning of queens and the kindergarten clowns have also made a tradition for themselves. The May Court always adds a fine touch to the festivities. All the teachers and students put a lot of decisions, time and energy in keeping this tradition going.

May Day 1991 included several performances. The high school showed their version of Hee Haw. They sang, "Low Places" by Garth Brooks and saluted the Town of Ehrhardt. The patriotic grammar school sang, "God Bless America."

The night was once again a great success.

Honors & Achievements

During the summer Angel Brandt and Angel Crim were chosen by Mrs. Stanley to attend an academically gifted camp at Wofford College in Spartanburg. At Wofford each of the girls were required to attend various classes. However, Wofford wasn't just all work! The two Angels agreed that this was a learning but also a fun experience.

Shannon Woods

Chosen by Mrs. Stanley to attend the Clemson University Agriculture Seminar, Shannon Woods said that he enjoyed the experience of visiting on a college campus and learning about agriculture. Shannon attended morning and afternoon classes. During the week he visited a tree farm where he learned how to fertilize and crossbreed pine trees. "The experience was rewarding and I had a great time!" exclaimed Shannon.

Elementary Way

The elementary grades of AJA have different views on getting their way. The students beg and plead to their teachers so they can either have a longer recess or no homework for the following day. They try to ease their way out of staying in at recess by doing nice things for their teachers. Although they're small, they have their own prerogative to get their way.

Each class carried on the basic routine, but with a little twist. Mrs. Wade said, "Teaching 2nd and 3rd grade was half the work and twice the fun!" Roxanne said, "I think recess is the best part of school." When Maria was asked about the advantage she had because of the two grade combination, she replied, "It helps you have more friends." Dustin said his favorite subject was art.

The Few, The Proud, The Underclassmen

Another year comes and goes, and we lose more and more friends. Our Senior friends that is! As each year passes, undergraduates get one step closer to having things their way and becoming seniors. Although we are the underclassmen, we feel a certain bond with the seniors. We have all watched each other grow and develop into mature young adults. One day soon, we'll "Have It Our Way!!"

UNDERGRADUATE

We Have Arrived!

Seventh Grade

L-R: Holly, Angela, Mindy, Ginnie, Amanda D., Katie. Mrs. Evelyn, Ricky, Amanda I., Shaun, Richard, Kimberly, Al, and Scotty.

The seventh grade, which is made up of 13 people, was asked to answer the question, "What is your most hated school rule?" Ginnie, Richard and Mindy all felt the same way. They hate not being able to show any affection. Shaun, Holly, Amanda I think that the rule about the length of shorts could be changed.

When asked about high school there were many pros and cons.

For example, the pros were: the different teachers, study hall and changing classes. The cons were: all the school work and that everybody runs over you like you were not there.

The role models of the seventh graders range from superstars, teachers and upperclassmen. Al's role model is Michael Jordan while the girls' role model is Mrs. Evelyn. Ginnie's role model is Woody! Go figure!!

Then when it comes to causing the most trouble, everybody agrees that it is definitely Scotty, Al and Richard. They especially like to shoot spitballs and draw on jerseys.

Believe it or not they do have favorite teachers. Mrs. Flail, Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Evelyn all fit this category.

Even though everybody likes AJA like it is, if they could change something it would be the rules and paint it a different color.

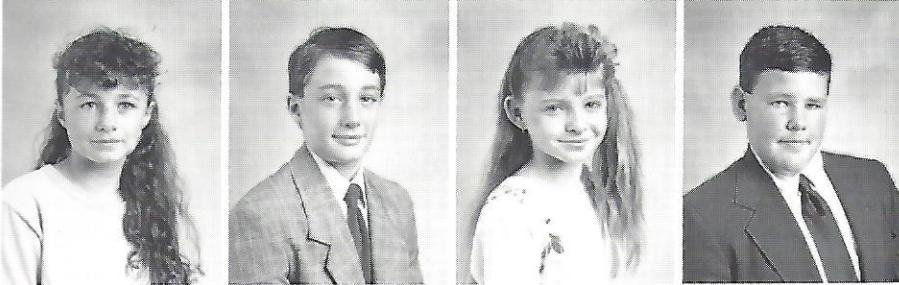

Once in a lifetime, Richard is actually doing his classwork.

Even though Amanda D. is in pain, she continues to keep a smile on her face.

The eighth grade population of 10 feels that some of the rules should be changed. "I don't like the rule against physical affection on school grounds," states Calin. Heather, Stacey, and Calin feel that the dress code should be changed. John, Jeremy and William says they are not too crazy about the rule of no gum.

When asked what their favorite subjects are, John and William replied, "Algebra." Calin, whom everyone voted as one of the biggest trouble makers in class, said that his favorite class is recess. Stacey likes science.

After school activities for Calin, Jason, and William are deer hunting and fishing. Heather and Barbie talk on the phone and do homework.

The whole class agrees that their favorite teacher is Mrs. Evelyn.

Angel Brandt states, "I believe sports helps to show school spirit and each student should participate in them to show AJA pride." Jeremy replies, "I enjoy school sports and more people should participate in them."

Angel Crim exclaims, "If everyone would take the time to help and encourage others this world would be a better place, but for now we've got AJA and that's close enough to our better world."

Stevie says, "Here we can learn a lot more because individual attention is always given when asked for." Gwyn states, "This school seems like a big happy family and I am proud to be a part of AJA." Marica adds, "I like Fridays off!"

Laughing Clint and Jared replies, "Study Hall is the most educational class in high school."

I wonder what Tiffany is up to now???

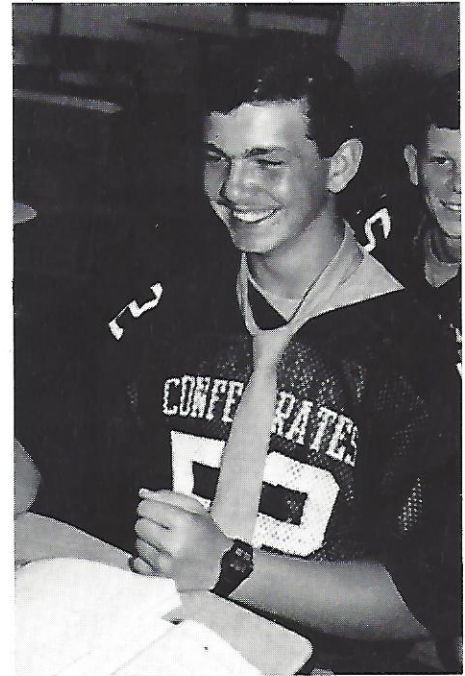

"The best thing about being a sophomore is by far the fact that 'we' only have two years left before we graduate," states Jonathan. Joy says, "We have a better chance to look into college activities and we receive our night driver's license." Sophomore Amy Waltz exclaims, "We get to go to the prom!" "One advantage of being a sophomore is the fact that we get to take a foreign language," says Emily. "Hasta Manana."

Elizabeth states that our sophomore year is the last year before we have to start selling doughnuts and fruit. "One great advantage of being a sophomore is that now all of us get to do more. We're more involved in activities both inside and outside of school," states Tiffany. In closing, being a sophomore has many advantages, rewards and new responsibilities. How we handle these new experiences is entirely up to each one of us as individuals.

The Junior Class had an important year in store for them when they walked in on the very first day of school. The Juniors had to work hard and raise lots of money to construct a prom for all to remember. Choosing the scene, music, theme and even the glasses produced a great task for all the Juniors. Selling doughnuts, fruit and raffling items were on the agenda of fundraisers.

Unbelievably, the Juniors still found time to spare to study and involve themselves in extra curricular activities. Of course, each Junior had time to choose their class ring. The least favorite activity was taking the PSAT.

When asked what are some of the qualities it took to be a Junior, Chasity replied, "Maturity, dedication, and lots of energy are qualities I have found to be useful as a Junior." Jennifer added, "Being a Junior helps you to have responsibility in the many activities that you have to accomplish, whether it be a class officer or selling the many things we have to sell. In the end, it's worth it!"

Mrs. Marsha, Junior sponsor, was responsible for the wild bunch of Juniors. She successfully kept the Juniors busy and continued to arouse the school spirit. Also, she prepared the Juniors for their role as Seniors, as well as for later in life.

Did you hear about . . . ???

I hope Mrs. Stanley doesn't think we're listening to her!

Never let it be said that the teachers at AJA aren't dedicated and caring professionals.

When asked what they enjoy about teaching at Andrew Jackson our faculty had a lot to say.

Mrs. Frye stated that she enjoys being able to teach Bible verses and Christian songs.

Mrs. Marsha enjoys the fact that the school is family oriented and that there is no discipline problems, which makes it a pleasure to teach at Andrew Jackson.

Mrs. Kearse exclaims that she enjoys the four day week and occasional lunches from Rachels!

Mrs. Webb enjoys the small classes and being able to get to know all the students.

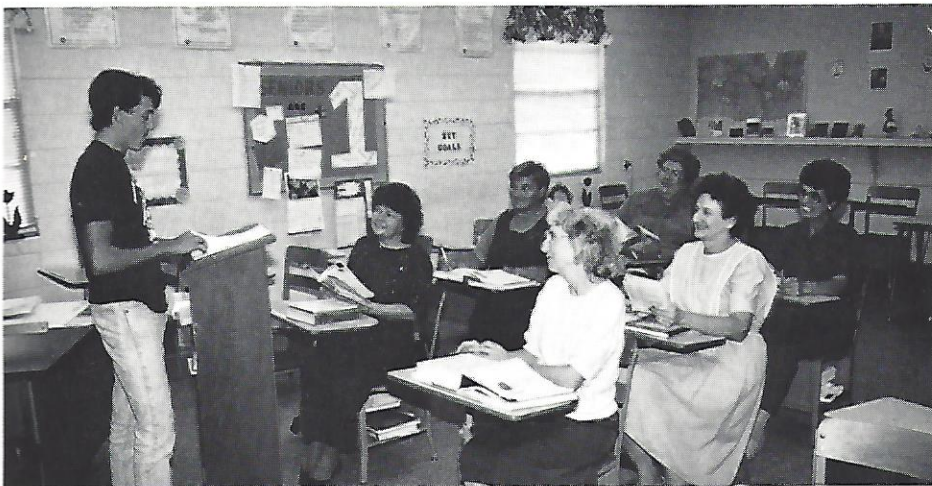

Mrs. Evelyn enjoys the relaxed environment.

Mrs. Peggy enjoys working with the faculty and the grammar and high school students.

Mrs. Flail states that she likes the students and the people she works with. She also says that the seniors are special students to her. She also enjoys how close everyone is.

Mrs. Horton enjoys the students she teaches and the people she works with. She also enjoys the atmosphere of the school.

All kidding and sarcasm aside, students at Andrew Jackson should consider themselves privileged to have such wonderful ladies caring for them for their future.

Now Miss Kirkland, what's your excuse for not having your homework today?

Taking time out of their busy schedules, Miss Paula and Mrs. Peggy pose for the camera.

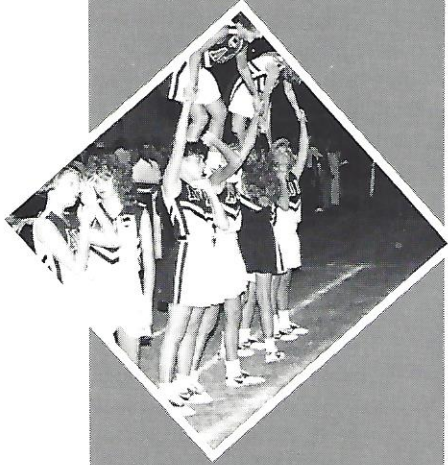

"No, actually, Mrs. Kearse, I don't understand!" exclaims Matt.

Angel and Amy feel relief as Suzanne and Elizabeth Reach their positions safely.

Jennifer thinks Oh, Lord, Please don't let me fall.

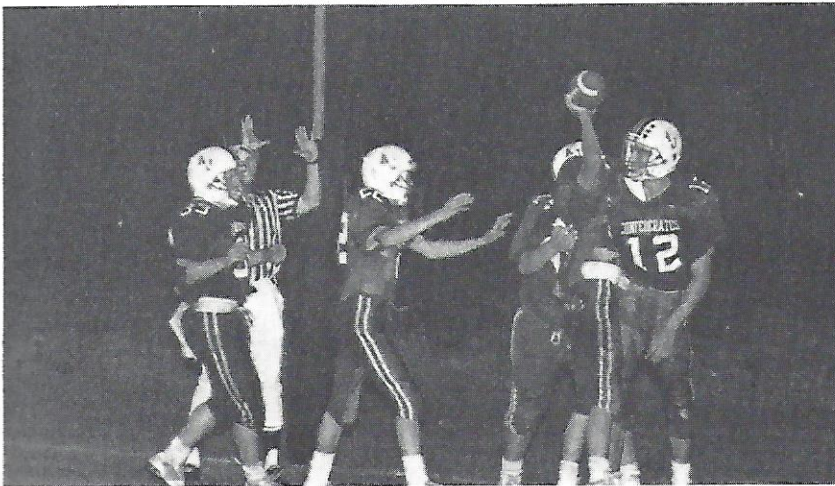

Our boys get "Fired Up" to go into battle.

Jason patiently awaits the arrival of the baseball.

NINETEEN

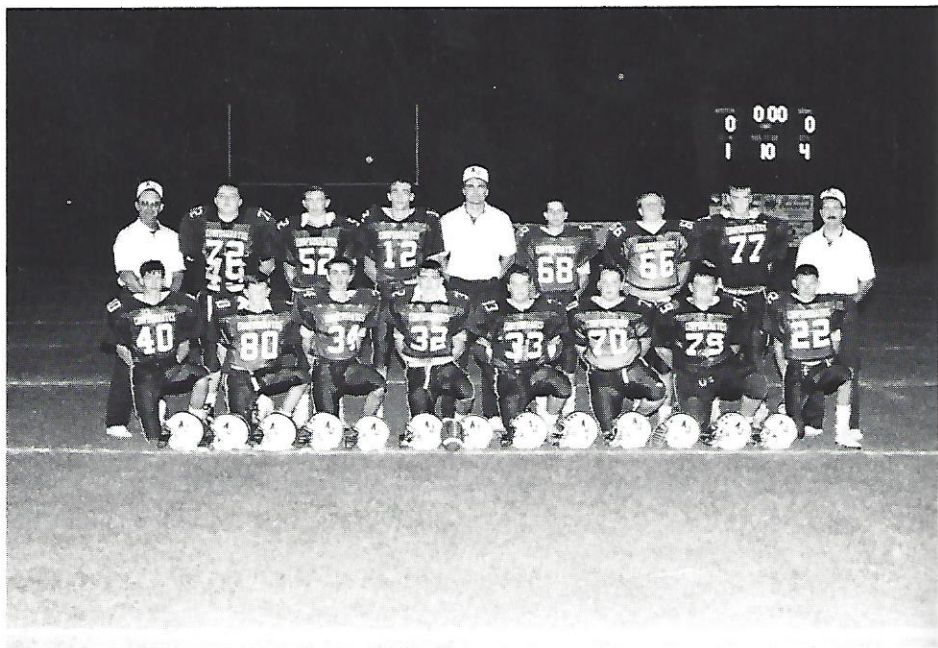

Sports has become a major tradition at Andrew Jackson. Students are offered a variety of choices in the athletic area. They can play football in the fall, basketball and softball in the spring.

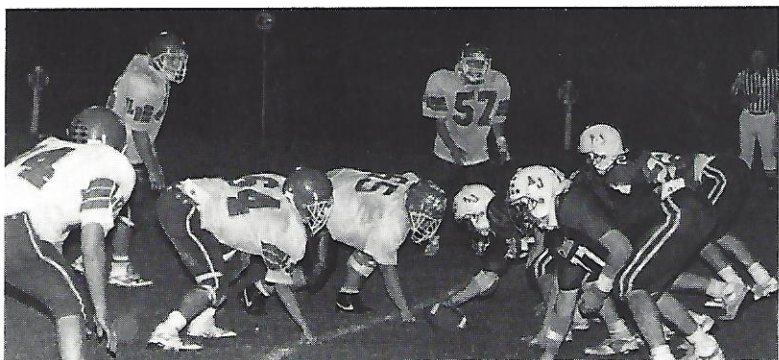

All of the athletes put out 100% when they're on the field or court. The players and coaches give their all to produce very exciting games. However, we realize that the sports department would be useless without the fans' support. To the fans, players and coaches, we say "THANK YOU!"

SPORTS

Jason, Michael, and Shannon celebrate a touchdown.

L-R: Shannon Woods, Johnathan Barnes, Brandon Deer, Stevie Brabham, Britt Hughes, Jeremy Walling, John Williams, Jason Peek, Coach Fanning, Chris Williams, Steven Beard, Steve Harrell, Coach Bolyston, Shane Sease, Jason Padgett, Michael Cone, Coach Way.

Confederate players are ready and waiting.

See our boys play defense.

Jason listens intently as Coach Boylston explains the play.

This year the Varsity Football team had quite an exciting year. The coaches and the team worked hard to push their way to VICTORY. Overall the boys enjoyed an exciting season.

When asked what he enjoyed most about playing football this year, Michael stated that he liked the new coaches, locker rooms, and being the number one punter in eight man football.

Jonathon says, "The practice was hard, but the rewards were great."

Jason said, "I enjoyed the challenge and the fact that we made it to the second round of the play-offs."

The players and the coaches worked hard to give us an action packed season. We're proud of you!

The Little Warriors

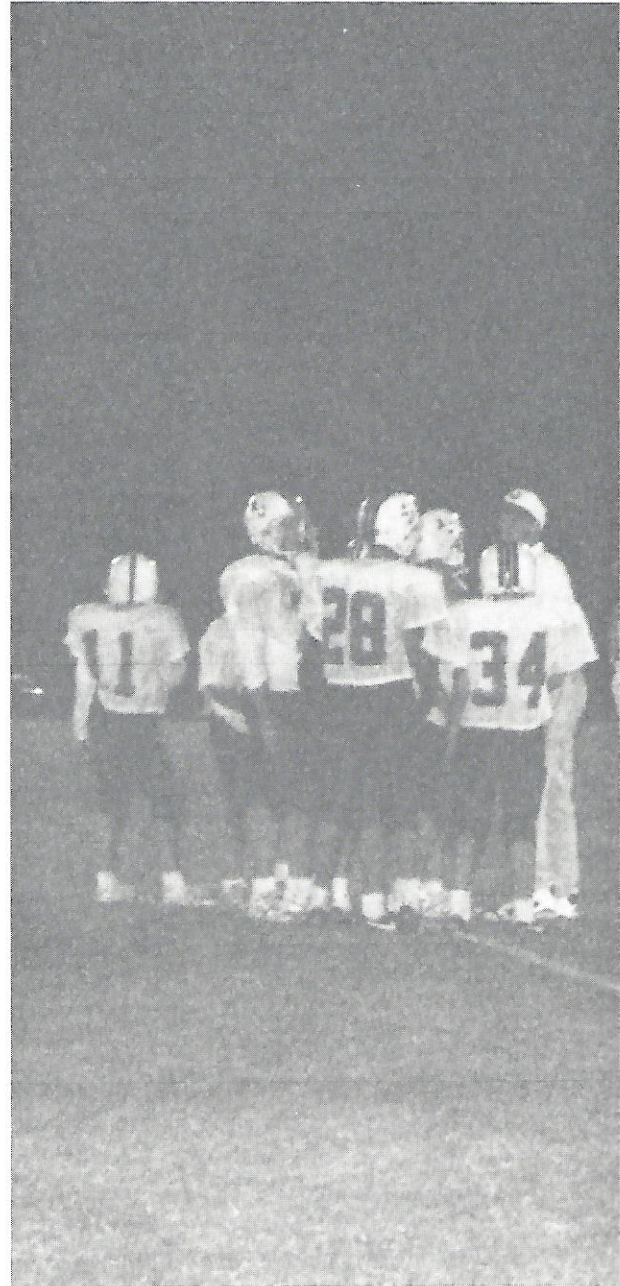

J.V. Football

The J.V. boys are just breaking through to get a start on the JDA crew.

Just receiving the football, the Confederates head for the touchdown.

The boys, huddled after a play, listen to see what to do next.

Diving in the ground, the Confederates show truly they want their touchdown bound while spectators are all around.

Jeremy (#11) strives for the 1st. down.

Posing for the camera, these 2 JV players taking five, try to act Cool!

This year the JV really had a time. They had a few minor incidents with two of their players getting hurt but hung in there for AJA till the end. With the end coming too soon as they thought so, they really put out the effort to show everyone that they had it. Lastly, they would like to thank Coach Jamee Barnes for the time and patience that he spent with them.

AJA Varsity Girls

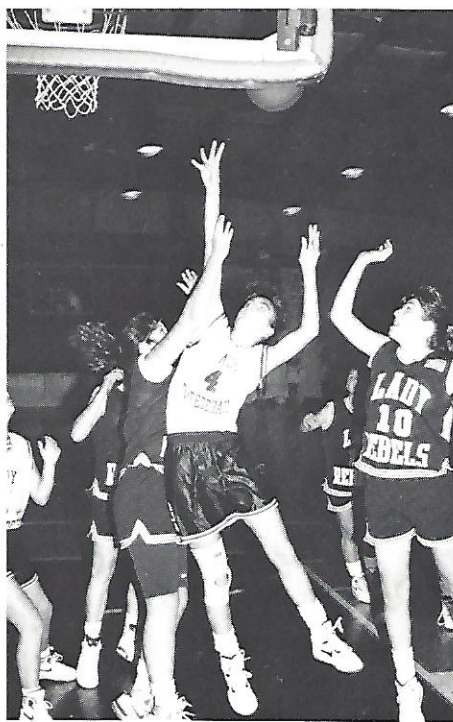

L-R: Ginny W., Christy J., Kara H., Barbie K., Angel B., Suzanne F., Joy A., Jennifer C., Coach William, Allison C., Kristi S., Heather H.

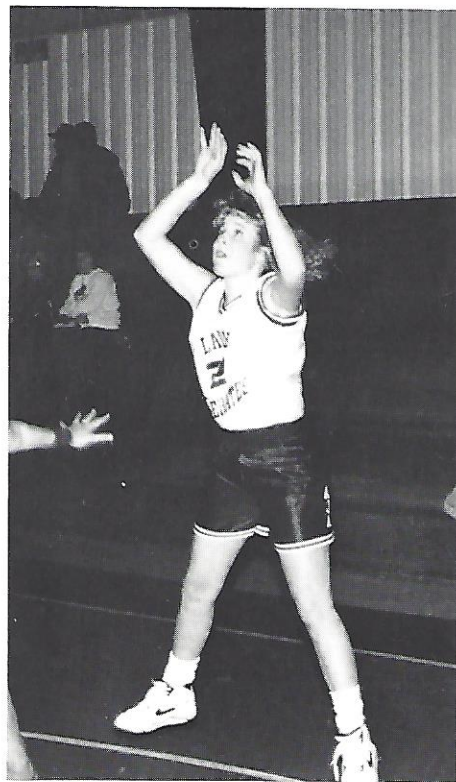

The AJA Varsity Girls Basketball team consisted of ten energetic, young ladies wanting to play ball. They started the year off with a struggle but eventually the girls maintained their winning attitude. These girls spend a lot of their time trying to have a winning season. We would like to give a special thanks to Mr. William for being our coach. He spends a lot of time with us and we would like to give him a special "Thank You". We hope that our season ends to be a great success.

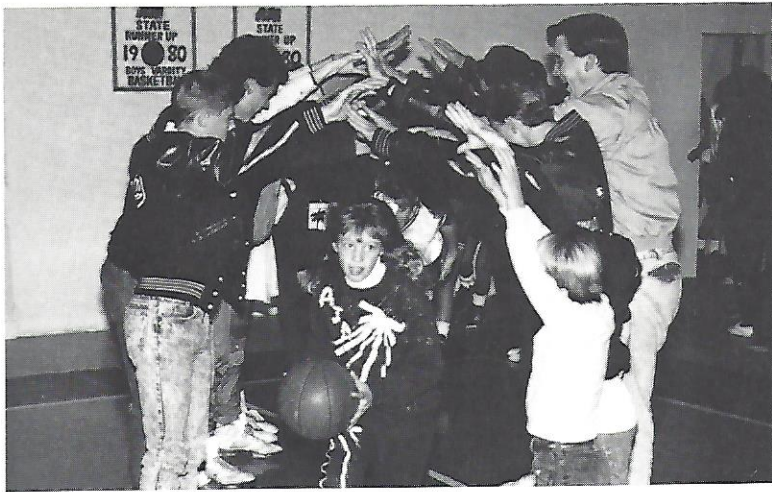

WATCH OUT!! I'm Coming through!

You had better get from under me if you know what's best for you!

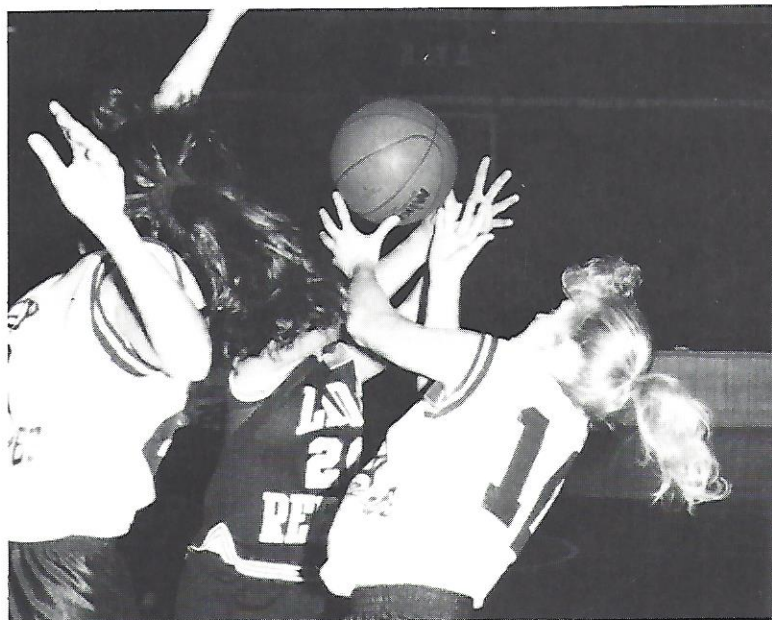

Is that Kristi jumping or a frog jumping that way?

AJA Varsity Girls ready to go out and get a Victory!

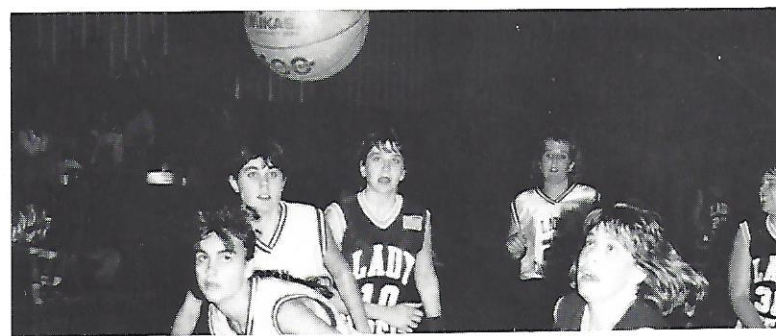

Coach is really into this game.

I will fight you over this ball if I have to!

Whatever you say!?!

Jennifer is very eager to get the ball before her opponent gets there.

You just as well not try for it because I have it!

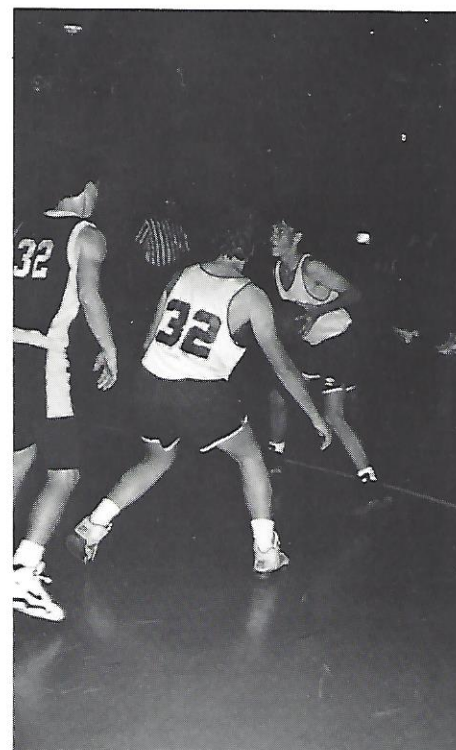

J.V. Boys Basketball

Susie Kinard, Robert Brabham, Richard M., Judy Brandt, Coach Doug Lax; Jonathan B., Ricky V., Jared P., Shaun B., Joshua B.

This year playing JV basketball was a little unusual. Instead of just one coach, they had four. The hard-working, dedicated team consisted of only six players.

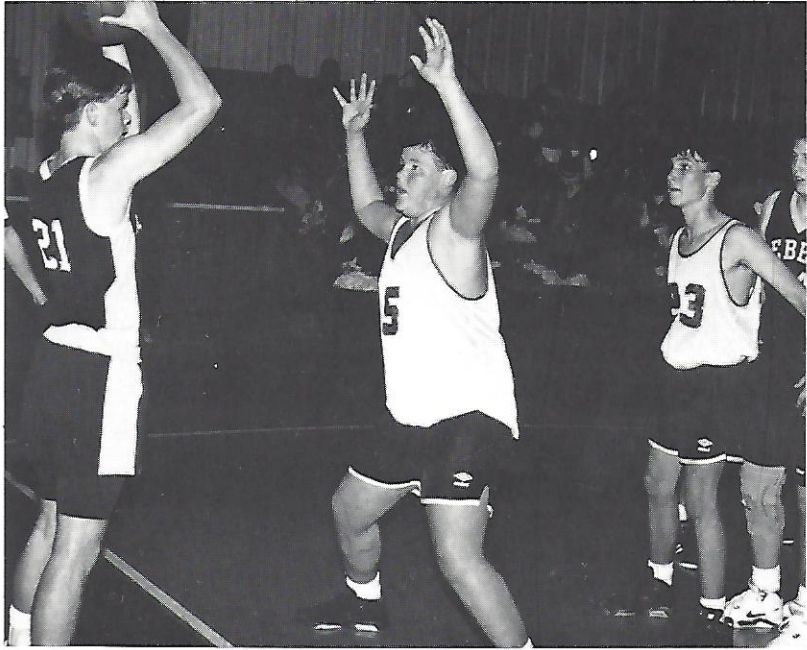

The six players worked hard and played their best. There were only a few of them, but they put out a lot of effort and teamwork to be the best team they could be.

Shaun shoots for two points.

Coach Lax gives the team some game plans.

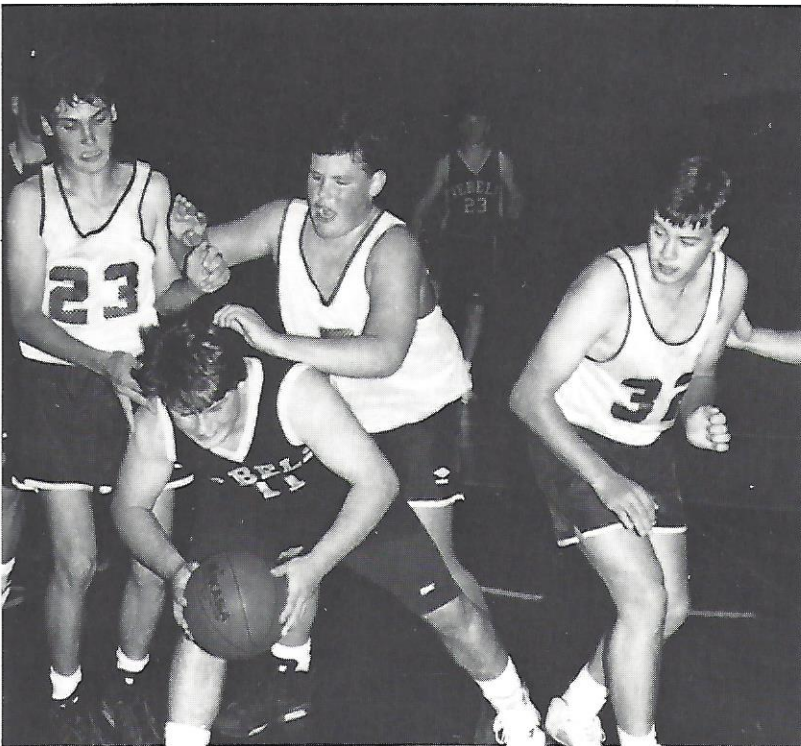

Playing Hard

Our boys show off their tough defense.

Shaun and Richard try to get the rebound.

Richard and Shaun really want the basketball!!!

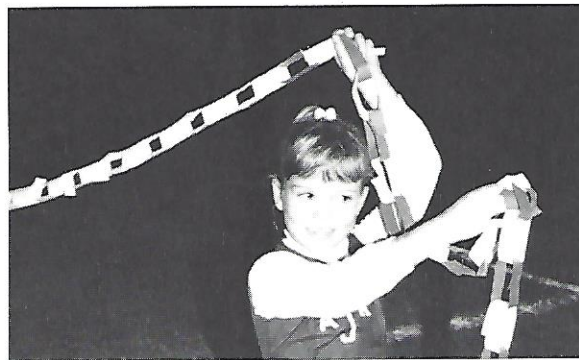

Cheering Our Way

Midget Cheerleaders

The little cheerleaders were very supportive of our team this year. They cheered at the home games. Having little cheerleaders helped to get everyone more involved with the game, because people came to watch their daughter cheer. Roxanne says, "Cheering is really fun." Maria exclaims, "I love to build pyramids!" Amber said, "I like learning new cheers." The little cheerleaders were a great success. Thanks to Mrs. Shelley Lewis, their sponsor, they have gained school spirit in many ways.

We can't wait to perform at halftime!!

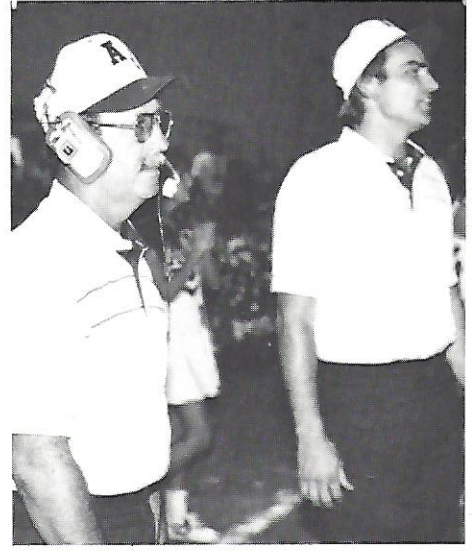

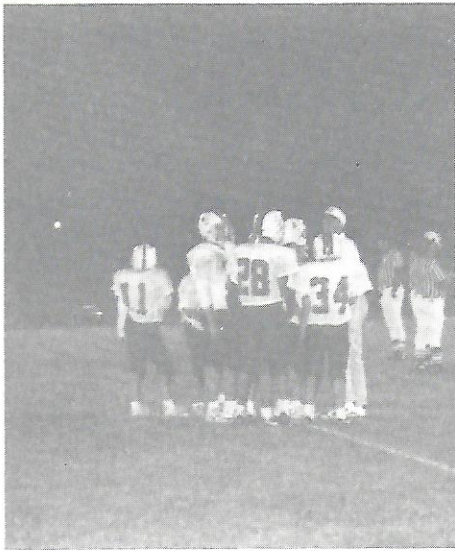

I love being a cheerleader!!

A Big Thanks

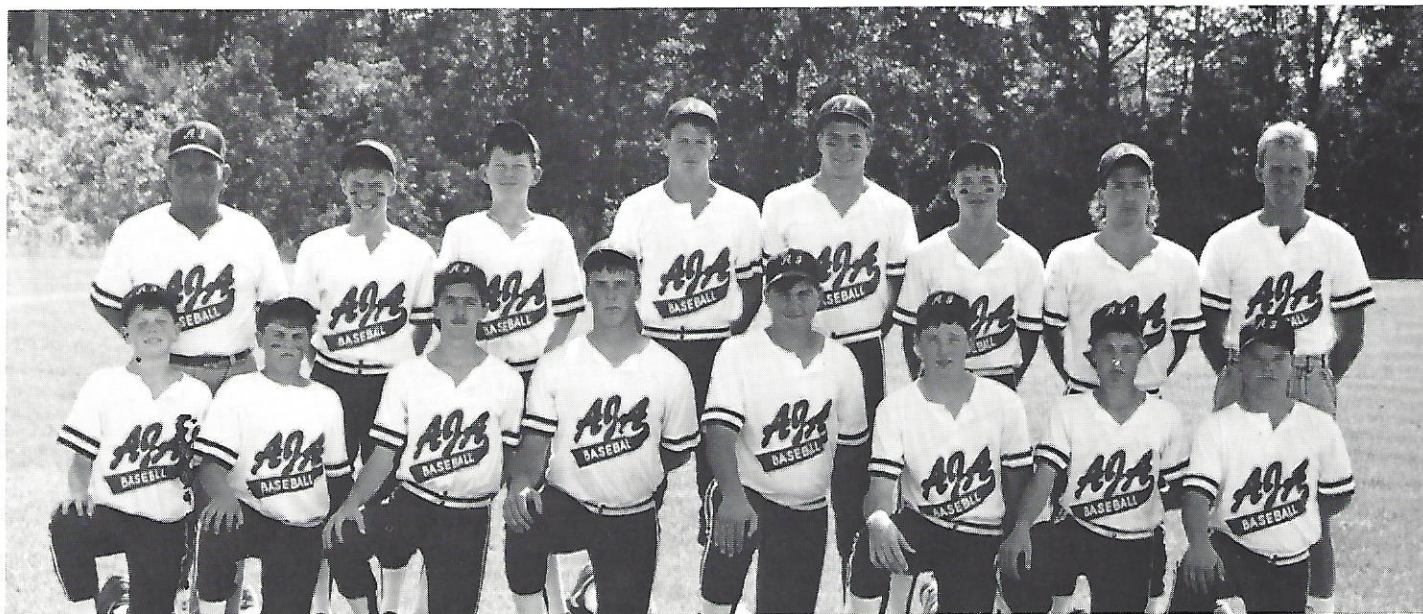

Through sunshine, rain, and frequent cold snaps our coaches managed to deliver the fans an exciting game everytime. We would like to thank all of our coaches for giving their players and fans something to look forward to on game day. Also thanks for giving the time and effort to all of us.

It brought me great joy being able to carry out the tradition of putting out the Jacksonian year-book. This year the theme's is "Have It Your Way!" So I hope you enjoy and have it your way. A special thanks goes out to my co-editor Jennifer, my advisor Mrs. Lenore, and to all of those who put time and effort toward this book. I don't know what I would have done without all of them. Once again, Thanks for all of your help!

"Tootie",

There comes a day like this in every father and mother's life. It makes their heart tighten in their chest. There's a lump in their throat and tears fill their eyes.

We can find no words at a time lie this to tell you just how proud we are of you.

Some day, too, you will know just how happy you have made our lives!!

With All Our Love,
Mom and Dad
Jessica and Gordon

Shannon,

It just seems like yesterday that we held you in our arms. We marveled that God brought you into our lives and made you our precious daughter. Today you've grown into a sweet and beautiful young lady, but in our eyes you will always be our little girl that we love so much!

Love,
Moma & Daddy
