

There are many exciting things that happen when you become a sophomore.

Stacey Fisk thinks that coming of age to drive is the best thing. Christy Jones likes the idea of being one year closer to being a Senior. Getting a new car was what thrilled Jeremy Bessinger. Calin Hiers and John Williams thrive on playing football and they both have high hopes of winning the State Football Championship in 1993. Anticipating Junior-Senior and Prom Weekend makes Christy Rutland and Monica Smith glad to finally be sophomores. However, Jason Padgett sums the story up pretty well when he states, "I'm just ready to get out!"

Stacey Fisk and Christy Rutland prefer "priming" to studying during classtime.

Garth Brooks visits AJA? No, it's just a great imposter, Calin Hiers entertaining at May Day 1993.

"Give me that secret play, Coach Dickson," says Jason Padgett. "I want to win this game!"
