

Steven,

You continue to fulfill the promise you have always shown. Who wouldn't be proud to have you for a son! Keep up the good work and keep smiling.

We love you,
Moma, Rebecca,
Michael and Misty

To April,

You are approaching another crossroads in your life. Please remember all that we have taught you and that we love you very much. Put your trust in God to lead you through. We are very proud of you and always will be. Best wishes to "Our Little Girl."

Love,
Momma, Daddy, and Chris

Emily,

You were a little surprise package that God sent us when we needed a ray of sunshine in our lives.

We love you very much and are proud of you and the things you have accomplished.

Always remember to put God first in everything you do.

Dad has always been proud to call you his little girl. Although he won't be here to see you graduate, I know he will be watching you from Heaven's window.

Good luck!

Love,
Mom

Senior Poem

Seems like only yesterday we started but soon we'll put away our books and pens. We'll go on with our lives once we have parted but now do we say farewell to our friends. The double dates, the parties and the dances, cramming for our futures until three, the football games, the stock yards and romances. Soon AJ will be just a memory. Our final years here have all become unraveled and so our high school story finally ends but years from now no matter where we've traveled we'll all look back and think about our friends.
