Things

F I R S T

On August 25, 1994, Andrew Jackson Academy opened its doors for another exciting school year. The anxious student body rekindled old friendships as well as became acquainted with new students. Each student had something different to look forward to as books were handed out and new rules were set. Everyone had the chance to ... READ BETWEEN THE LINES!

Angel Brandt and Suzanne Fogle discuss the situation following a ball-game ... or perhaps the yearbook deadline!

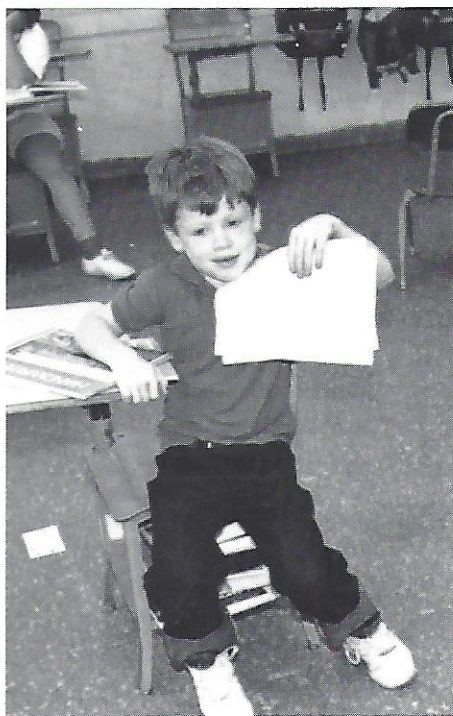

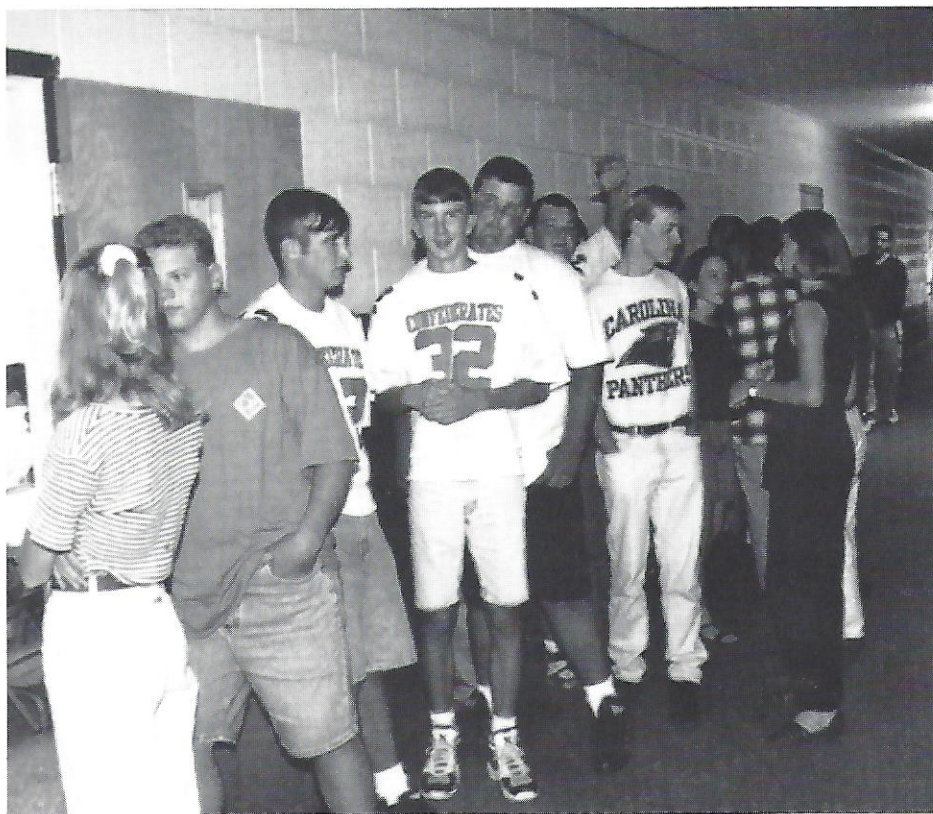

Nicolas Godley, Joshua Barnes, and Daniel Bessinger admire their new hair cuts.

What's going on here? Jeremy Bessinger and Barbie Kinard can fill you in. Jason Fogle and Calin Hiers look on.

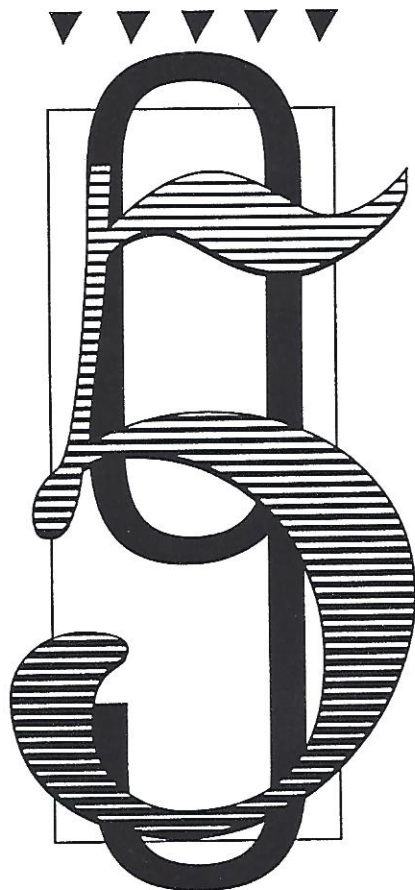

Freshmen and Sophomores wait patiently in the lunch line.

Lori Still enjoys recess. She's ready to kick the ball to a classmate.

This cute little redhead, Rhett Willis, keeps things happening in second grade.

Dedicated To

Mrs. Ruth Frye

Mrs. Ruth Frye has made a major impact on her students. She has been not only a teacher but also a role model. When passing her in the hall, you are always greeted with a friendly smile and hello. Mrs. Ruth had a "special calling" into the teaching profession and she has fulfilled that calling to the best of her ability. She has been an asset to Andrew Jackson Academy teaching the first grade since 1987.

Mrs. Ruth, we appreciate you for the things you have done but more importantly for the person you are.

The Alma Mater
Beside the highway
Where the crowds are passing
Stands Andrew Jackson
Proud Academy.

And all will find
Who seek within her portals
A wealth of wisdom
Truth and loyalty.

Dear Andrew Jackson
We will sing thy praises
And lift on high
Thy banner to the sky.

Thy lofty aims
Will be out inspiration
To deeds of honor
As the years go by.

In Loving Memory Of

Allison "Pooh" Carter

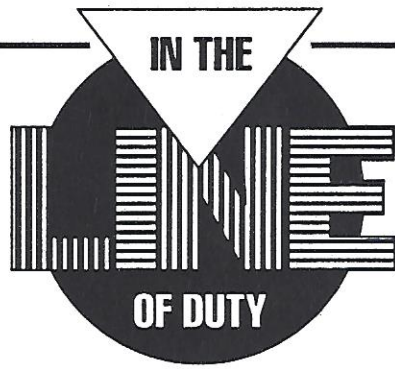

A STAR IS BORN

On Dec. 12, 1994, the world lost one of the kindest, most liked persons to ever walk the earth. Nineteen year old Allison Carter departed on this sad day. To those who knew her she needs no testimony of her generosity and zest for life. But for those who did not know her, I feel compelled to introduce her to you. Nineteen years ago a star was born. This star was named Allison, and she was to be no ordinary star, for she was to outshine all others. She was happy and she made all those around her happy. She had a love for life and looked forward to each day. She was a church going girl, whose smile alone could light any room. She was to have a wonderful life, and she was to brighten the lives of others.

Now this star is gone, she is high above. So the next time you gaze upon a clear, star lit night look upon the brightest and say, "Hello, Allison," for she shall be that star, smiling down upon us all.

In fond memory.

Sports

In every athlete's life, he has the feeling of being in the line of duty. Each athlete contributes something to the team he's on. You don't have to be the best to make a big difference in a game. Extra hard work, dedication and good sportsmanship shows first what kind of player you really are. When faced with another player's remark, often you have to "Read Between the Lines."

Read Between The Lines

Sports keeps me physically fit and builds character.

Read Between The Lines

You have to be disciplined to play sports. You can't always have it your way.

Ginny Walling challenges an opponent in a jump ball attempt.

Let's hear it for the Confederates. Christy Jones wants the crowd to get the spirit.

Ricky Varnadoe receives the ball in an attempt to make some yardage.

o Doubt About It

Marc Loadholt shows a sign of making the first down. Let's do it again!

Ricky Varnadoe is bootlegging ... a play often used by the team to confuse the opponents.

The Confederates huddle around Coach Boyleston and Coach Dickson for instructions on the next play.

A cool crisp night, fans sitting in the stands covered with blankets, cheerleaders yelling on the sidelines . . . ah, yes, it's FOOTBALL SEASON. What an exhilarating season our team had. Even though there were some losses to record along with the wins, the team played their hearts out. The Andrew Jackson fans can say our football team played tough and with unforgettable determination. We can't forget the coaching team who gave many hours of hard work to the boys preparing them for competition. Some people frown upon the idea of eight man football but it has proven to be an advantage for AJA.

Sometimes it's hard to contain the enthusiasm and energy of Stevie Brabham.

You're not going any further with this ball determines Shaun Brandt. Stevie Brabham is ready to assist.

o, Confederates

Varsity Cheerleaders: Camile Bishop, Kimberly Carter, Barbie Kinard, Ginny Walling, Tracey Jones, Christy Jones, Mary Beth Willis, and Suzanne Fogle.

Even though the varsity cheerleaders got off to a rough start, they were always there for our football team. The girls tried their best to keep the team's spirit up. The midget cheerleaders entertained the fans during half-time. Even though the mid-gets are small in size, they have plenty of spirit. The JV cheerleaders came through for the basketball teams. Although they were inexperienced, the girls gave it their all.

1994 - 95 Confederates

Kimberly Carter, Camile Bishop and Christy Jones encourage the football team with their enthusiastic cheers!

Let's hear for the boys. It helps any team to have cheerleaders and fans encouraging them to do their best.

JV Cheerleaders: (Kneeling) Jennifer Barr, Ashley Nettles. (Standing) Jodie Martin, Melissa Steinmeyer, Lori Still, Jessica Overlock, Roxanne Brandt, and Kendall Carter.

They're young and unexperienced now but watch out! They'll be great!!

H ave What It Takes

With hard work and dedication the boys' basketball team faced each opponent with confidence and a winning attitude. They proved that the Andrew Jackson Confederates were back to give each team a struggle for the conference title. With an experienced team, the Confederates were able to take their talents to the limit. No matter the outcome, the Confederates had the hearts and desire of the Champions.

Shaun Brandt and Marc Loadholt try for the rebound as Calin Hiers keeps an eye on the ball.

You can't have this ball. Shaun Brandt keeps it out of reach from the opposing team.

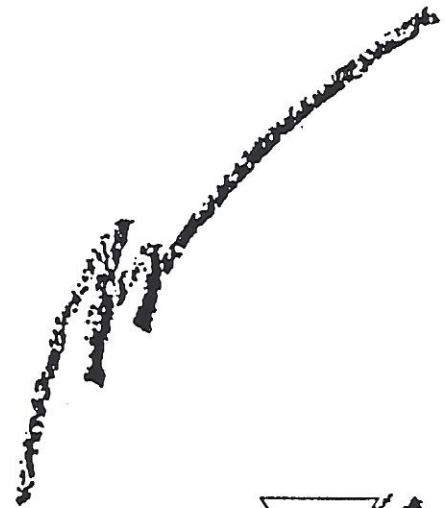

Marc Loadholt rebounds the ball after an attempt at the basket by a Wardlaw player.

Finding his way around a Wardlaw player, Jeremy Bessinger takes the ball down the court.

Calin Hiers jumps high to rebound the ball.

n the Move

Although the Lady Confederates were small in size and in number, they were big in heart and in spirit. Three girls moved up from JV but that still only gave our girls' team three extras — there was no room for mistakes. During the basketball season the odds weren't always in their favor but rough, tough, never give up was their motto.

Varsity Girls Basketball: (Kneeling) Kara Hiers, Suzanne Fogle, Rebecca Beard, Tracey Jones. (Standing) Angel Brandt, Ginny Walling, Coach William Hiers, Kimberly Carter and Barbie Kinard.

Ginny Walling recovers the ball and begins her dribble down court.

Barbie Kinard keeps those hands up to prevent a foul being called on her.

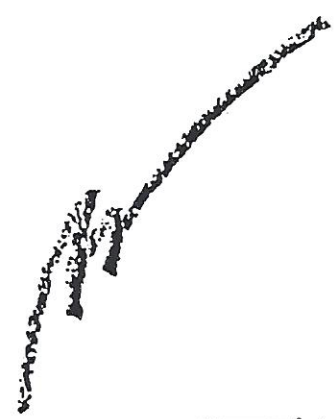

Barbie Kinard and Suzanne Fogle Try hard to capture the rebound.

Playing on JV can be a new experience for many players, especially this year's JV Boys team. They have a new coach and many new players. Learning the basic skills like how to pass, shoot or dribble are the first steps to learning the game of basketball. Quick thinking and quick action will produce a winning team.

This good action shot of the JV Boys game shows the team working together to play their best.

The JV Girls team, coached by Mrs. Joette Hiers, learned the basic skills of basketball and put them to work in every game. Girls are sometimes temprimental but Mrs. Joette keeps them in line.

These JV girls will become a great varsity team soon.

Lori Still and Jessica Nipper both try to recover the ball.

Jump Ball! Roxanne Brandt tries to get the ball toward one of her team members.

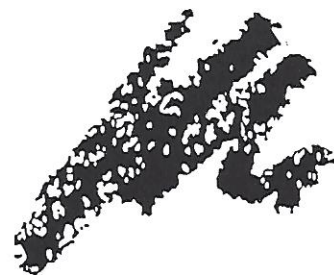

Denise Duncan, in good form, is blocked by a Wardlaw player as she approaches the basket.

Attempting a shot under the basket is Lori Still.

All right, girls, do what I tell you so we can improve our record.

The 1994 Lady Confederate Softball Team consisted of seventeen players. Many of them were new members of the team. Coach Mike Hutto came back to help us defend our State Championship title. Even though we didn't make it to the play-offs, all of the hard work had been worth all the effort.

Many new positions had to be filled because of losing graduating seniors. All of the players tried out for the pitching position, but only Camile Bishop and Joy Ackerman made it to the mound. Many home runs and line drives were hit because everyone's hitting skills had improved. Whether we won or lost, we had fun playing the game!

Christy Jones puts forth her all in trying to catch the ball as it enters right field. Her efforts paid off!

Is this unsportsmanlike conduct? No. It's just a little fun between Camile Bishop and Christy Jones.

Angel Brandt prepares to make a hit!

Catcher Susan Davis is ready for the pitch.

OUT! Suzanne Fogle successfully catches the ball.

Team Spirit! That's what it's all about. These girls "chant" their teammates on to victory.

G

The 1994 Confederate Baseball Team consisted of fifteen players. It was sometimes discouraging not to win but Coach Sease and Coach Kirk- land didn't let the team have a losing attitude.

The All-American sport of baseball has always been a favorite among the AJA students. The team works well together and eagerly looks forward to each game ... especially when they can leave school early!

1993-94 Baseball Team: (L-R) Jeremy Bessinger, Justin Jones, Will Willis, Stevie Brabham, Shandy Frye, Calin Hiers, Shaun Brandt, Britt Hughes. (Standing) Coach Kirkland, Jay Walling, Marc Loadholt, Joey Campbell, Kyle Hiers, John Williams, Steven Beard, Eric Polk and Coach Sease.

Joey Campbell recovers the ball from the ground. Was it an out?

This AJA player heads for first base but keeps his eye on the ball.

Marc Loadholt keeps an eye on the ball as he prepares to make a hit.

On the pitching mound is Justin Jones.

You're Out!

Calin Hiers and Coach Sease are intense as they talk over the situation during an exciting baseball game.

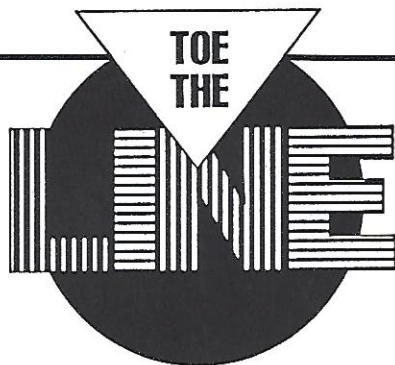

What would our sports program be without our dedicated coaches? Most of our coaches are volunteer but ALL of them put forth a lot of effort to train our young athletes in the rules of the game but more importantly in the importance of sportsmanship and team effort. Thanks, coaches, for all you do!

ADMINISTRATION

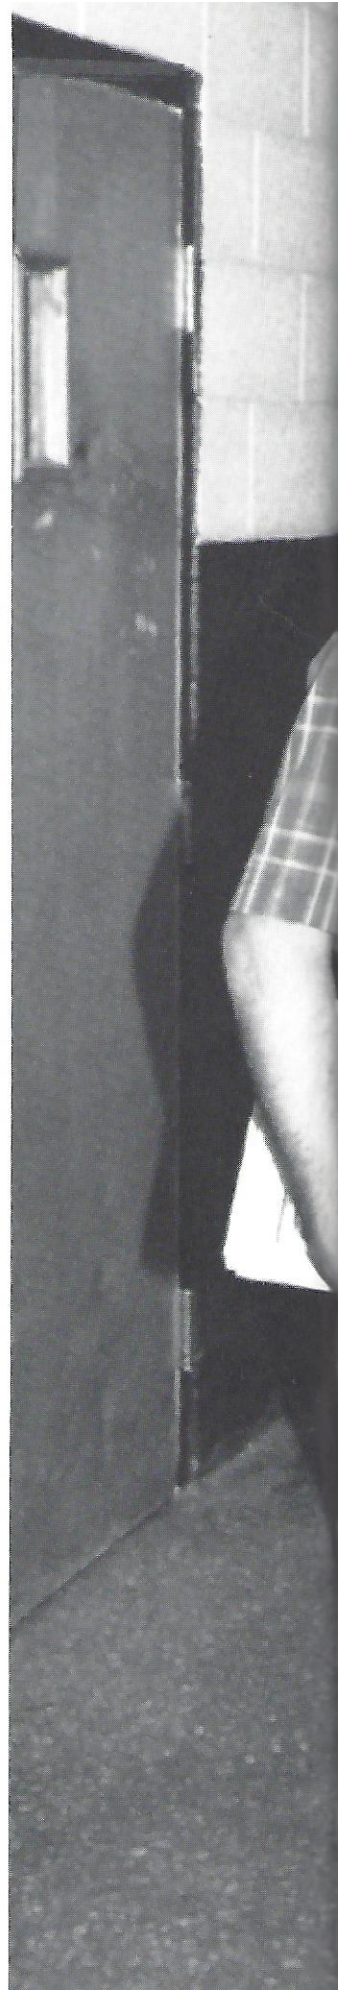

The administration is a very important part of each student's instruction. Excellent teachers, counselors and leaders are vital aspects to a good strong education. Our administration not only meets these qualifications but also helps each student to feel as though they are all family and friends. The courage to excel beyond average is instilled in each student's mind for each year and in all grades. Our school administration creates a thirst for knowledge and with knowledge comes wisdom; wisdom to allow each student to make his or her own mark on society, no matter what course life may take them.

ound And Determined

Becoming a Senior is every underclassman's dream. The Class of '95 was no exception. This year's Senior Class has something special that not many preceding graduating classes have ever had. Most of the students filling out the Class of '95 have been together since kindergarten. A special bond much like that of a family exists between these eleven students. This closeness makes graduating very special to each of them. A mixed blessing of accomplishment and regret, of excitement and sorrow. The responsibilities of choosing a career, a college or taking the final SAT lay heavy on these Seniors but not as heavy as their hearts as they contemplate saying their final farewell.

Seventh Graders are working really hard in Mrs. Hauss’ class.

CLASS OFFICERS: Perry Malphrus, Secretary; Kris Fogle, Treasurer; Nicolas Godley, President; and Lee Waltz, Vice-President.

Jacob Smith checks over his test paper to make sure his answers are correct.

Jessica Overlock pays close attention to the instruction of her teacher in SC history.

Lee Waltz is caught in action as he whispers the latest gossip to a very concerned Perry Malphrus!

ELEMENTARY

Even though lower school is small, the students never seem bored. Soccer is one of their favorite pastimes. Some of the kids participate in the D.A.R.E. program. This year P.E. has been added under the direction of Coach Dickson.

Going to the library, having P.E. and recess are the best parts of the school day for many of the students ... and some of the teachers!

Crystal McDonald is in deep thought as she reads her book.

The Sixth Grade class says they don't quite have things their way. A few of the students commented that since they are the seniors of the grammar school, they should be first in lunch. "Senior" privileges should be granted to them just as the real seniors have privileges. This should be a position the rest of the grammar school looks forward to. They said there would be some real change around her if "We had it our way."

Why are the Sixth Graders' desks so spaced out? Perhaps it is to keep them out of trouble.

What's so funny, Josh? Sally Malphrus and Joshua Overlock are cutting up again!

"Play It Cool" means different things to the students. When asked this question they remarked:

"This year it was cool because we had the same amount of girls and boys."

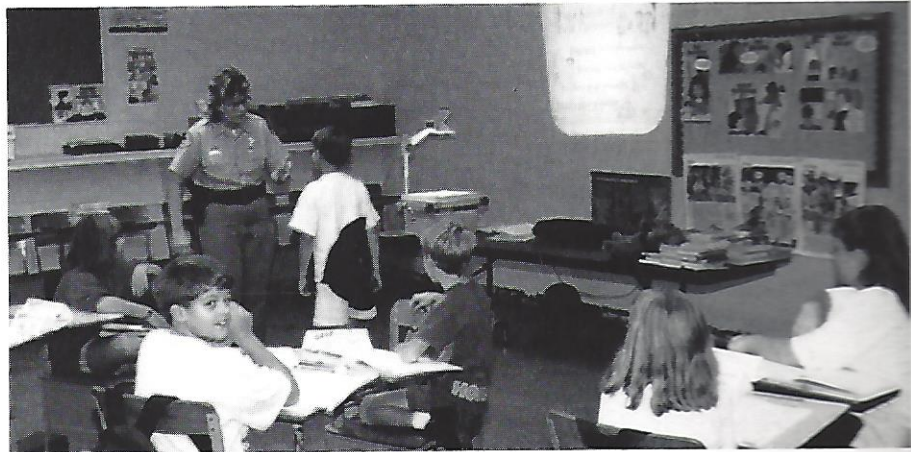

"It was even cooler when the new girl came to our class."

"It is more fun to have a small class."

"It's nice to have a new teacher."

"We like it better this year because of PE."

"It was fun having David back for a while."

D.A.R.E. instructor, Adrienne Blume, explains the importance of saying no to drugs. This program is especially planned for fifth grade students.

Who said fourth grade is fun and games? Just let them observe our class for ONE day!

Mrs. Horton keeps us pretty busy with all the subjects we have to learn. However, we do find time to break loose once in a while and enjoy ourselves with fourth grade pranks!

Our class has enjoyed the new GeoSafari electronic game this year. The grammar school classes take turns using it and we look forward to our week.

We hope we will be able to learn how to use the computer very soon. We will have lots of fun and games then!

Gordon Nipper, Pam Still and Shane Burnette are eager to begin their day of "fun and games!"

Danielle Riddle, Lori Varnadoe and a very concerned Natalie Gordon are prepared to take part in the day's lessons.

Cassie Loadholt

Rachael Stewart

The three of us are very good friends. We are all very different. Cassie is a little joker! Leslie is a little talker! Rachael is a little giggler! We are all special.

We don't know exactly what we would do if we had a little boy join our class. If we had a boy then he would certainly be very special and get lots of attention.

The third grade trio enjoys reading period.

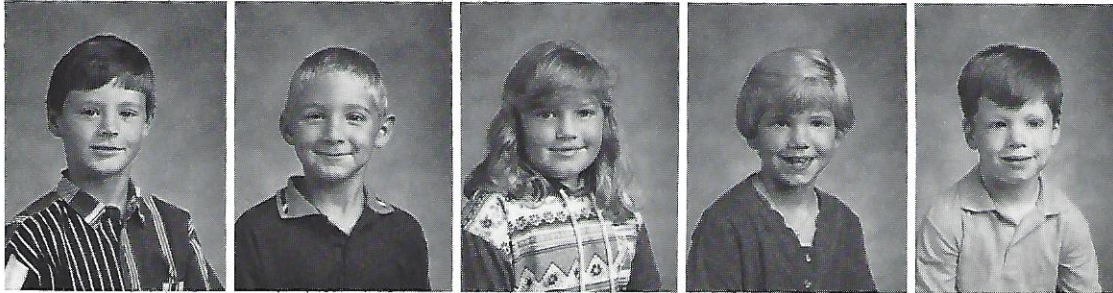

Don't we look interested? Our class is small but we get an awful lot of work done.

Look out third grade!

Mrs. Wade checks Cassie Walling's math book. Cassie looks confident that her answers are correct.

Is posture in the curriculum in second grade? Probably not since students are found in almost any position!

We are small people and a small class (2); but we do BIG things!

We finished our second reading book before Christmas. Not only do we learn our regular lessons, but we do many extra activities. Some of these include learning to use the dictionary, play educational games, put puzzles together, work mazes and word finds, write stories, do art projects, etc.

Both Kristan Bledsoe and Stacy Hutto have won beauty contests and have been involved in out-of-school activities.

These two pretty blondes, Kristan and Stacy, stay busy all day in Mrs. Frye's first grade class.

Making the honor roll has been a great accomplishment for Kristan Bledsoe. Hard work will earn it every time.

Mrs. Frye instructs Stacy Hutto where to begin her lesson. Stacy is also an honor roll student.

Kindergarten is where it all begins! We learn the alphabet and the sound that each letter stands for so that we will be able to read. We also learn numbers, shapes, colors, and we count nearly everything we can find!

Manners, sharing, writing, games, cutting paper, gluing and walking in a "nice, straight line" are all part of our world.

From the alphabet to zooming around the playground, kindergarten really is "everything from A to Z."

This is the largest kindergarten class in quite a few years. Mrs. Cindy stays bus with 16 students. Kayla Hutson joined the class after pictures were taken.

Russ Kinard and Maria Duncan enjoy the good selection of books provided by their teacher, Mrs. Dobbins.

Handsome Joshua Grubbs looks forward to every minute at school where he is the center of attention to several young ladies.

Brittany Gross is excited every day where she attends kindergarten class.

These fine kindergarten students enjoy recess on their own playground. They are Bethany Wade, Nathan Koch, Brandi Rentz and Jeremy Jones.

STUDENT LIFE

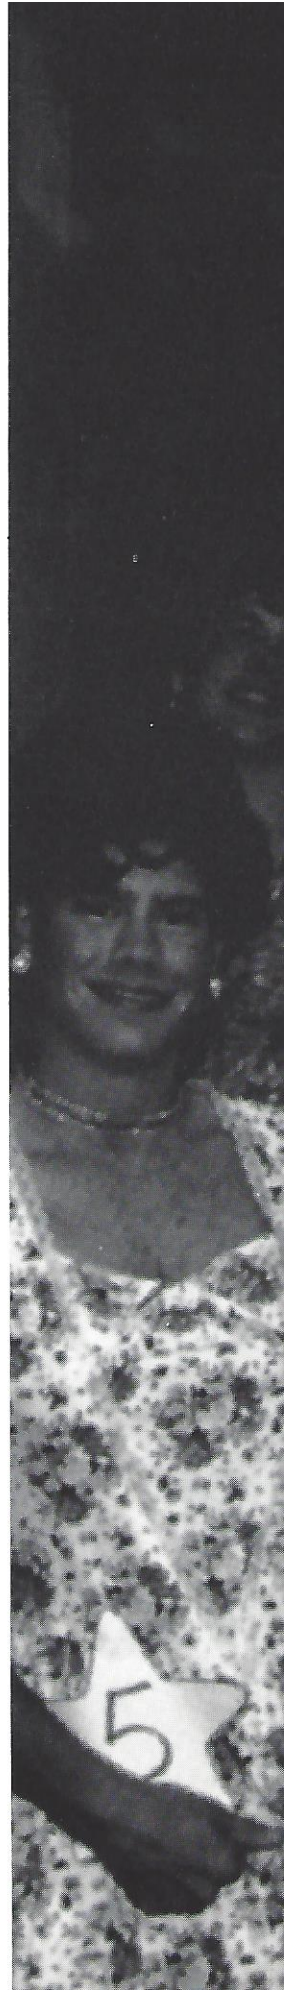

School life is not all study, study, study. We have a diversified array of student activities. In the fall of the year, a few lucky ladies are called upon to participate in the Homecoming Queen contest. Each high school grade also gets to select a charming representative for class queen. The beauty contest here at our school is not only limited to our lovely girls, but also our lovely senior guys get to strut their stuff. All of you who have ever attended a beauty contest know just what we mean. May Day is for all the students to entertain family and friends. Hours and hours of practice go into preparing for this affair. The one event all students dream of is the beloved Prom. My what work, but oh what fun!

The Prom is one event during the year that many students look forward to. As in the past years, the Junior Class raised the money for the prom and chose the theme, "One Moment in Time." After two weeks of decorating the gym, the special night had finally arrived. The couples danced the night away to the band, "Dance Unlimited." Prom weekend was spent at Edisto Beach.

Are we footloose and fancy free, or what?! Would you believe we all came dressed formal?

Britt Hughes and Ashlyn Smith enjoy a "moment in time!"

ntertainment Tonight

The high school students did a marvelous job performing at May Day. Here Shandy Frye portrays Aladdin.

May Day is a school event that every class has the opportunity to participate in. The theme of the 1994 May Day was "Entertainment Tonight."

The Kindergarten class tradition continued as they performed as clowns. The first grade class pleased everyone the Mexican way with the Mexican Hat Dance. Poking around, the second and third grade did the Hokey Pokey. Taking the audience back in time, the fourth grade imitated the Beatles. The fifth and sixth grades twisted to Chubby Checkers', "The Twist."

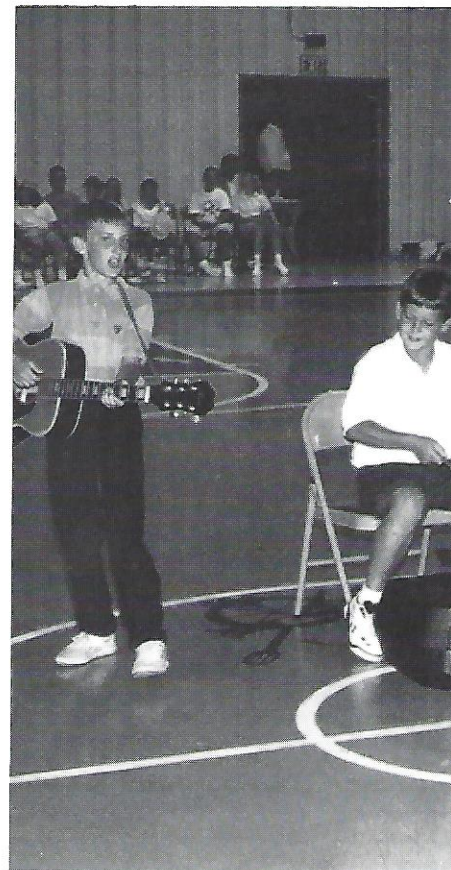

The grammar school attendants were graceful while doing the May Pole.

The AJA Little Cheerleaders did "The Charleston." High School students performed some scenes from Disney's movies such as "The Little Mermaid," "Beauty and the Beast," and "Aladdin."

As Entertainment Tonight came to a close, it proved to be a success.

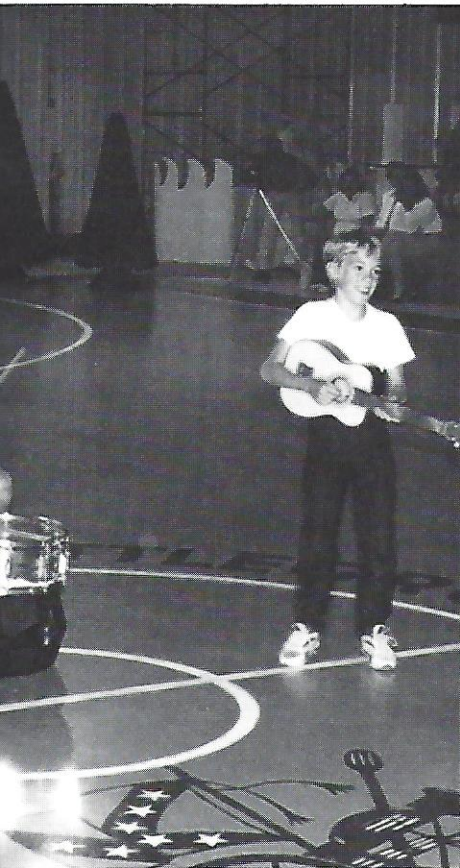

Joshua Grubbs was one of the performers of the spicy Mexican Hat Dance.

Beauty and the Beast (Susan Davis and Stevie Brabham) portrayed beautifully their parts in the May Day 1994 program.

Homecoming is an event that all students look forward to seeing. The football players have two thrills: one playing in the game and the other is escorting the lovely ladies onto the field for the Miss Confederate and Homecoming Queen coronation. The Homecoming Queens are voted on by the whole student body, while Miss Confederate has the distinction of being chosen by the football team and cheerleaders. Either contest is an honor to win and so is beating your opponent for the homecoming football game!

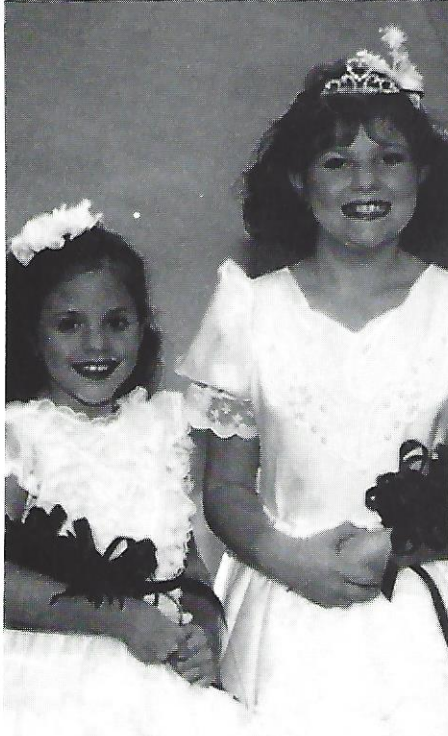

You can really work up a thirst on the football field. Paul Clayton quinches his thirst with . . .

In The Spotlight

The 1995 Miss Andrew Jackson Academy pageant was held on November 10, 1994. Each contestant was definitely in the spotlight. The Master of Ceremonies was Mr. Frank Dickson. Entertainment was performed by Mrs. Donna Malphrus and Mrs. Carla Stewart.

The winners in the pageant were: Miss AJA — Angel Brandt; Runner-up and Miss Congeniality — Barbie Kinard; Jr. Miss AJA — Ashley Nettles; Runner-up — Jessica Overlock; Grammar Miss — Sally Malphrus; Runner-up — Rachael Stewart; Little Miss AJA — Kristan Bledsoe; Runner-up — Ashley Price.

Entertainment was provided by Senior boys. Winning Mr.-Miss AJA was Stevie Brabham; Runner-up was Jeremy Walling.

Academics

Student Clubs and Honors are a distinguished part of student life. Students who earn special honors because of academics are rewarded for their achievements by becoming an elite member of that distinct organization. Helping the whole school become involved in community projects during the school year, while also keeping a check on student life are just a few responsibilities of the Student Council. Having a common interest brings students together to enjoy the many different clubs and organizations formed here at our school.

Jacksonian Staff

We would like to start off by thanking Mrs. Lenore Thompson for understanding when we didn't know how to do some things because of inexperience. Thanks also for all of your time and effort put forth in helping us meet our deadlines.

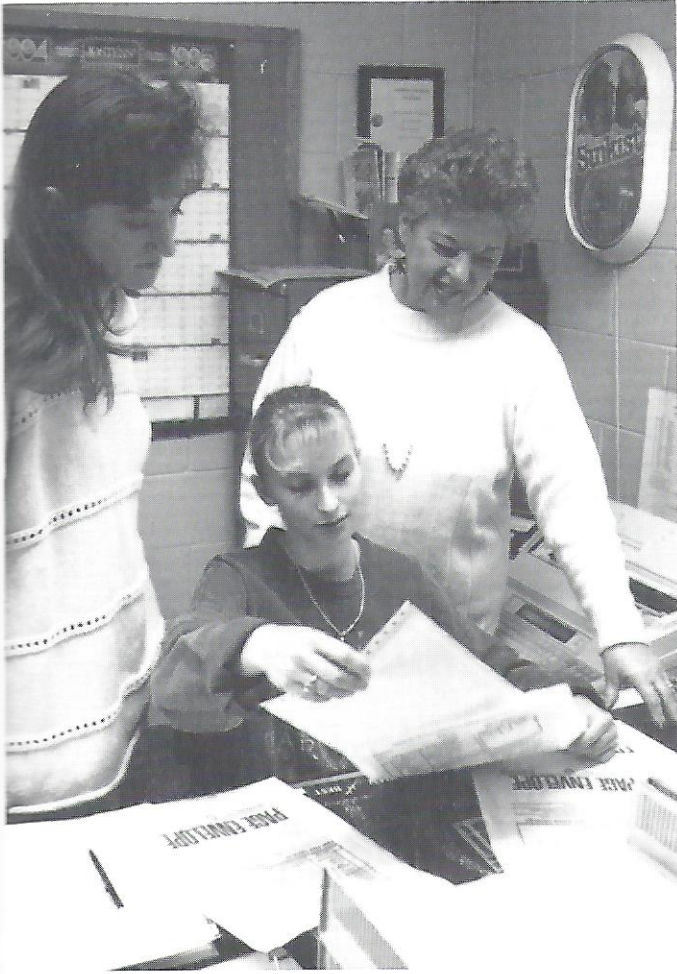

To the Annual Staff, without you this yearbook would not have been possible. Thanks for spending time in your summer to sell ads that were very much needed. We also appreciate the effort each of you put forth in the layouts we asked you to do. We hope you each enjoy putting together your senior yearbook.

Thanks also to the teachers who helped write body copy to be printed in the yearbook. We will always remember the help that was given to us.

We hope that you enjoy the 1995 Jacksonian not only now but in years to come. As you reminisce, we hope that you will be reminded of your time spent at Andrew Jackson Academy.

Suzanne,

It seems like it was only yesterday that we held you in our arms and kissed you for the very first time. At that same moment we knew God had surely blessed us with a beautiful little angel. Over the years, from nursery rhymes to term papers, you have brought us only joy and happiness. As we cut loose the apron strings and let you follow your dreams, we wish you only the best which you so richly deserve.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Marica,

We are very proud of you and know that you will excel in the future. We love you and will always be here for you.

Love,
Dad, Mom, Holly and Man

Joey,
Congratulations! We are very proud of you and your accomplishments. We wish you only the very best in life. Keep up the good work. We will always be proud of you.
We love you,
Momma and Daddy

Paul,
Remember how God answered our prayers and allowed us to spend Christmas together? God will continue to bless you if you stay close to Him. May you always have fair skies and gentle seas.
Love,
Mama and Daddy

To a great and wonderful granddaughter

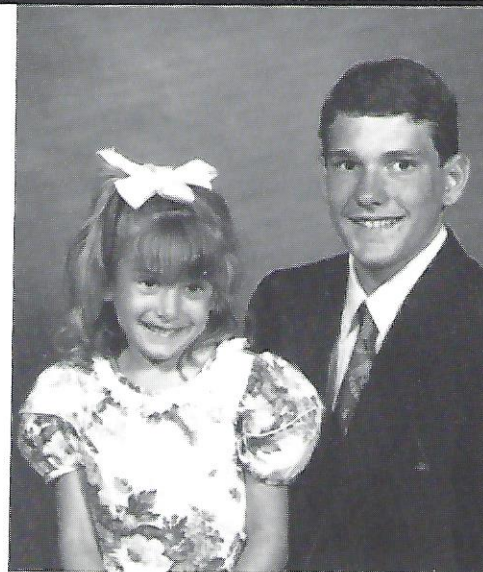

We have watched you grow from a child to a young lady. You have always been a blessing to us and willing to help when needed. We know we can count on you now and in the future. Stay as you are now, sweet, kind, and loving and your future will be a blessing to you and others.

We love you very much,
Granny and Granddaddy

Thanks for being such a good son. Keep up the good work and continue to work hard. We are proud of you, and hope that you have the best in life.

We love you,
Mom, Dad, David & Cassie

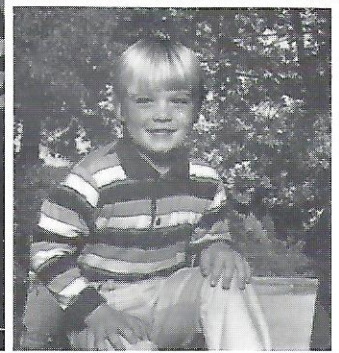

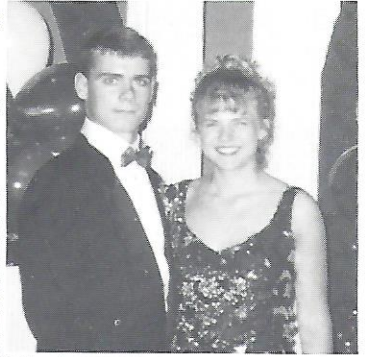

Son,

We love you and are very proud of you. We pray that you will have a wonderful future. Remember to trust in God in all your decisions.

And don't forget my red sports car!

Love,
Mom and Dad

I love you more love Cassie

Stevie,
 I thank God for blessing me with such a fine son that you are. I am so proud of you and love you very much.
 Remember, I am always here for you.
 Love,
 Mama

Angel,

You've brought much joy to our lives and new experiences and interests through your love of sports. Our lives have been greatly enriched by living part of our lives through you. We did choose the appropriate name for you. You are "our little angel." We love you.

Mom and Dad

To Angel and Stevie,

We watched you begin both of your lives together at birth and shared in the joy of watching the two of you starting school together. You have many memories and experiences of your lives together growing up. Now upon graduation you will be going in different directions and starting a new beginning of your life. We hope that both of you will always stay in touch and remain close friends throughout your lives.

Donald and Janice

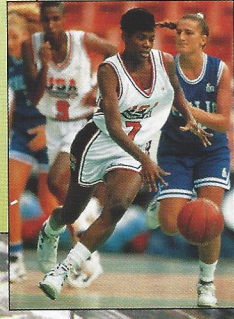

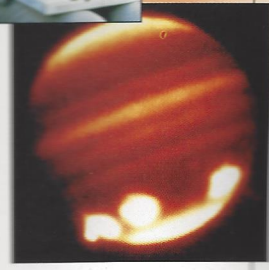

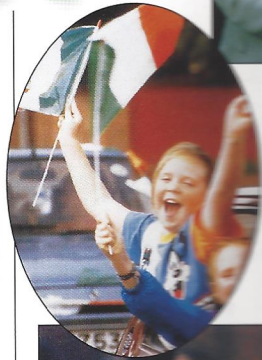

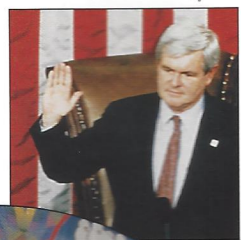

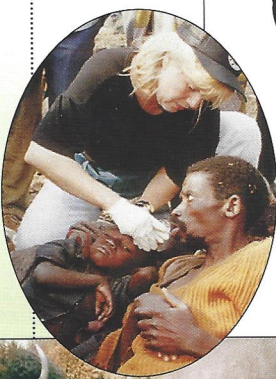

P.S. You also have the memory of sharing the 1995 Miss Andrew Jackson title!
