Dedication

With love and pride we dedicate the 2003 Jacksonian to Mrs. Joette Hiers.

Mrs. Joette deserves this special recognition because she is a dedicated and devoted teacher, has coached J V girls' basketball, served as co-sponsor for the Student Government, and has served as cheerleader sponsor. Mrs. Joette loves teaching! She believes in Andrew Jackson Academy and its values.

Mrs. Joette has always gone the second mile to help and encourage her students.

Thank you, Mrs. Joette, for your years of love, dedication, and support to Andrew Jackson Academy.

Mrs. Joette Hiers

Mr. Graham Padgett

In Memory

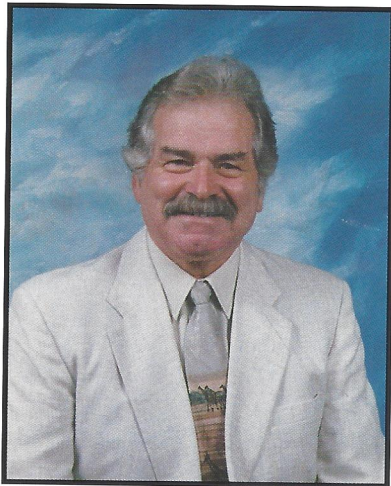

It is with gratitude and appreciation that we recognize Mr. Graham Padgett for his many years of hard work and dedication to Andrew Jackson Academy. Mr. Graham worked many long hours to see that the building and grounds were well groomed. He often worked when no one else even knew of the extra effort he put forth in doing his job. Mr. Graham had a very special love for AJA and whether he was attending a sports event or working on his job he had that "Confederate Pride."

When you asked Mr. Graham how he was feeling he almost always said, "Everything's rocking along pretty good!" We know things are better now than "pretty good" because he is rocking along in the arms of Jesus.

"Sonreir (smile)!"

This year's Junior Class is a group of energetic and spunky young people. Their favorite subject: Humanities; class clowns: Robert Gross and Robert Worrell; most athletic, Chris Hutto; most likely to succeed: Lauren Varn. Lesley Chavis and Jerrica Smith are the newest class members.

When away from school, most of the Juniors like to have a good time playing sports or just hanging out with friends. The majority of the class plans to further their education.

Each year the eleventh grade is a year filled with selling fruit, receiving of class rings, and finally planning and decorating of the Junior-Senior Prom. Even though they enjoy all of this, they can hardly wait to graduate!

Tenth graders enjoy Mrs. Paula's English Class EVERY day.

The tenth grade class consists of twelve students. Their homeroom teacher is Ms. Calloway. They describe themselves as energetic and active, with a lot of crazy ideas. They said that their favorite place to eat out is at any Mexican restaurant. On the weekends they ride around and hang out with friends. They would NEVER squeal on each other!

Cassie "Bo" Walling was voted most athletic; Danny Varnadoe, class clown; Amanda Bennett, quietest; Tosha, most likely to voice her opinion.

Good luck to our rising Juniors and keep up the good work!

Cassie Walling and Candice Still are definitely up to something!

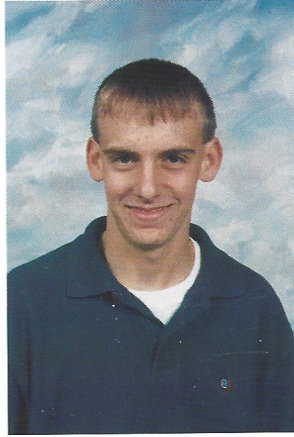

These pretty young ladies in the sophomore class are very studious.

No way could Richie Sineath get in trouble in computer class!

CLASS OFFICERS: President Kyle Seigler, Vice President Brittany Pfaff, Secretary McKenzie Dobbins, Treasurer Kristan Bledsoe, Representative Rickie Sineath

The freshman class has worked hard this year. This class is very energetic and most of them participate in sports. Kristan plays softball and cheers. Richie, JP, and Wade play football. Brittany and Kyle play basketball. The class voted JP as the class clown; Chris, smartest; Karli and Wade, most popular.

We hope through thick and thin this class achieves their dreams.

Best of luck to the Class of 2006!

The eighth grade is very athletic, very talkative, and energetic. Now, if we could just work on those academics!

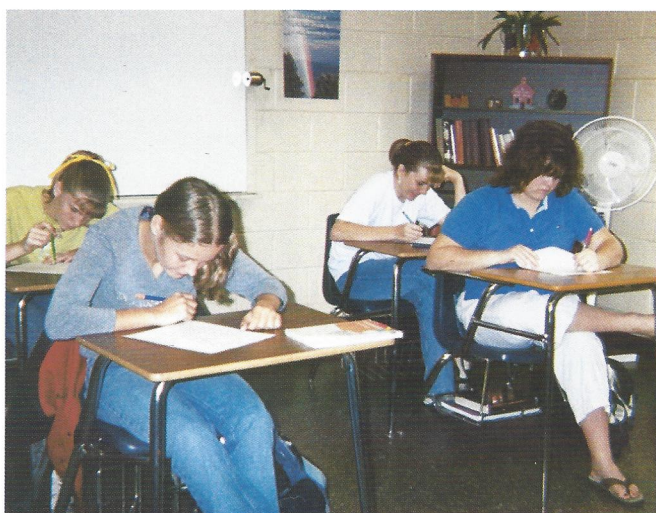

Ms. Bellamy wonders sometimes if they're just too much for her to deal with.

Kimberly, Faren, Brittany, and Lauren are cheerleaders. Kimberly, Faren, Brandi, and Brittany play basketball and softball. Jeremy, Daniel, and Jacob play basketball and football. Chris is part of the football team, too.

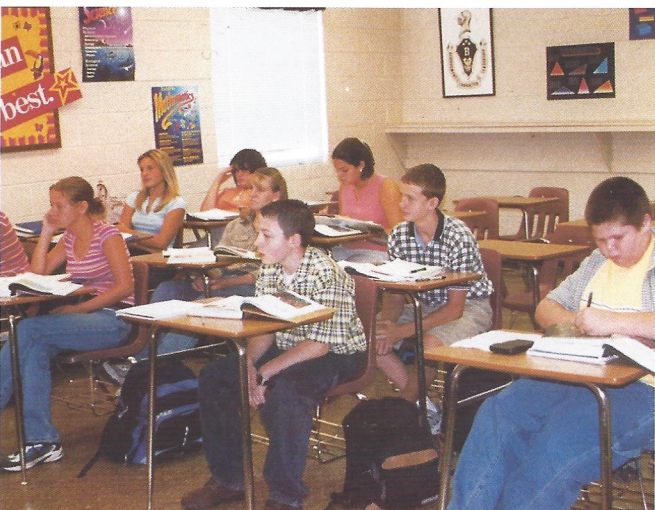

These future Freshmen are anxious to begin their high school years. Look out, AJA, you're in for a blast!

Brandi Rentz is not only athletic but quite a studious young lady, too.

Lauren, Brittany, Kimberly and Madeline are putting forth their best effort on acing this test.

The pre-freshman class is getting ready to enter high school English under the teaching Ms. Paula.

President Daniel Meyer is setting a good example for his classmates by being a good student.

The seventh grade class starts the day off with Mrs. Joette in homeroom. Lauren Bennett and Justin Weber are new to the class making a total of eleven.

Bryan, Justin R., Justin W., Danielle, Bobby, B.J., Bradley, Kristen, and Erica all play sports. The girls like to shop and talk on the phone but the guys like to . . . you guessed it, HUNT!

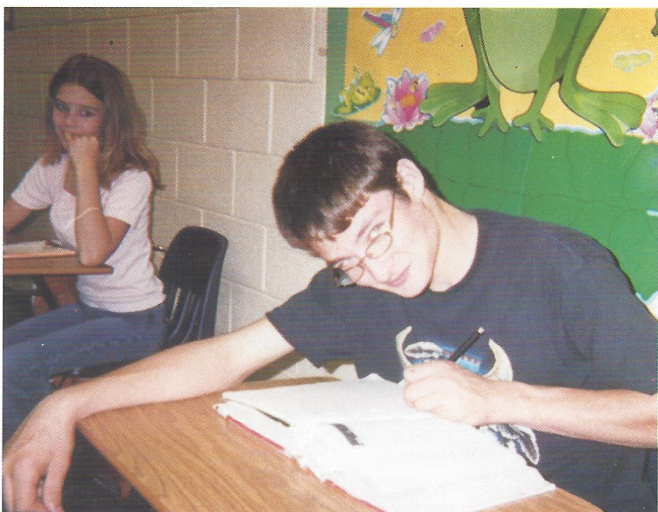

Everyone agrees that Kyle is the class clown. Lauren and Bobby are the quietest.

The seventh grade says that the best thing about being at the high school end is changing classes and not having any little kids to bother them.

Good luck, Seventh Grade!

Mrs. Joette is hiding in the back of the class. She blends right in with these young folks!

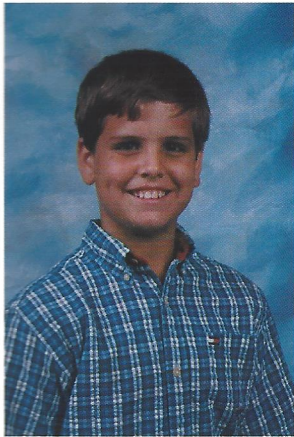

B. J. Priester is trying to do his classwork but with a pretty girl on one side and a frog overlooking his shoulder, it's pretty hard.

WILD. That's the only word to describe the sixth grade. They said they were going to "rock" high school next year.

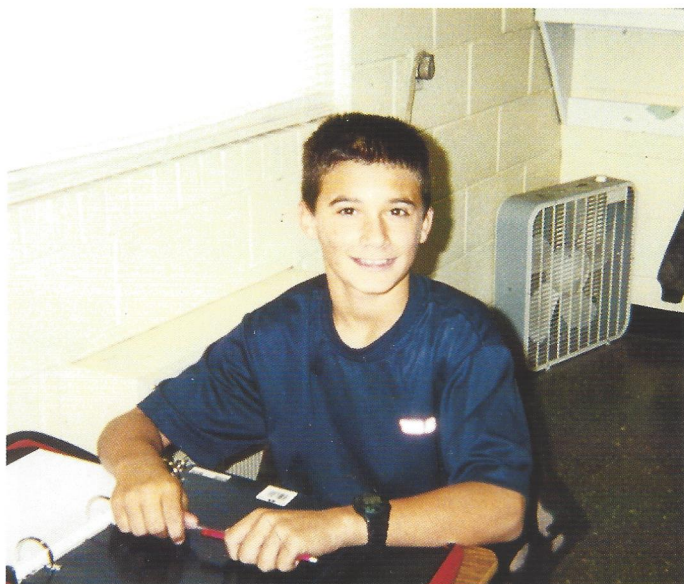

They enjoy hunting and basketball. They also enjoy riding four wheelers and TV. Ericka is considered the smartest and Michael is, well . . . Michael! John wants to be a farmer and Zac wants to be a mime.

There are many athletes in this class and they look forward to varsity sports.

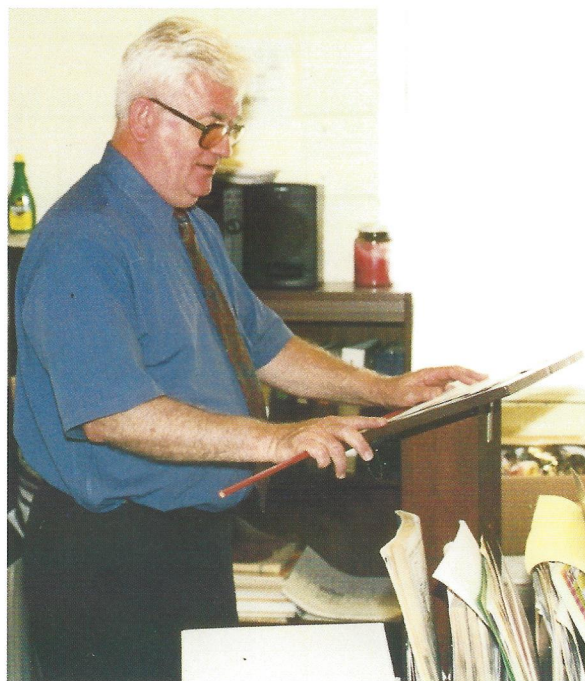

Their favorite music is rap and country. They enjoy recess at school.

Ericka Johns was chosen Grammar May Queen and Missy Driggers was chosen Maid of Honor.

Hang in there, sixth grade! See you in high school next year.

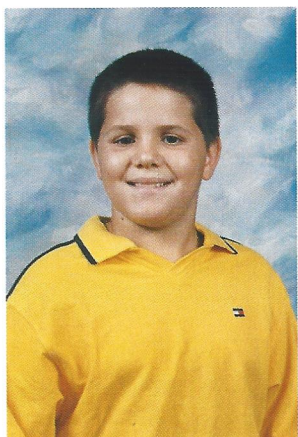

Watch out, girls, this cute guy is moving into high school next year. Mrs. Joette, here comes Chris Long. Be ready!

Mr. Kirk Mixson, sixth grade teacher, stands at the podium to give his class instructions for the day.

Miss Robin is an energetic teacher who really loves fifth grade.

Megan McFadden would find it hard not to laugh at the two class clowns, Sam Clayton and Axton Crolley.

Nicholas Martin is surrounded by new students, Corey Walsh and Scarlett Kinard, who all look a little tired at the end of the day.

Have you ever seen a fifth grade class so energetic? They said they have Ms. Robin to thank for that. She keeps the excitement in the classroom rolling with a little help from Axton and Sam.

Their favorite subjects in the classroom are science and math. Out of the classroom they enjoy PE, recess, and lunch. During recess the boys play football and basketball and the girls enjoy kickball and cheering.

They look forward to being sixth graders - the Seniors of grammar school! Fifth graders look forward to playing JV sports next year and having Mr. Mixson as their teacher.

Look out, grammar school, for the sixth graders to-be! They're on the way!

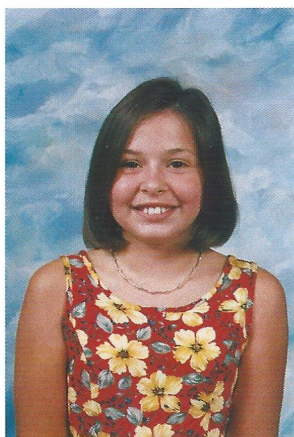

New Student to AJA, Genie Cleveland, shows her prize winning smile.

Mrs. Horton has a real challenge teaching fourth grade this year. Ashley Freeman and Lindsey Sineath assist her.

Justin, just why are you sitting so close to the teacher's desk?

Victoria McCallister is a pretty and sweet addition to the fourth grade.

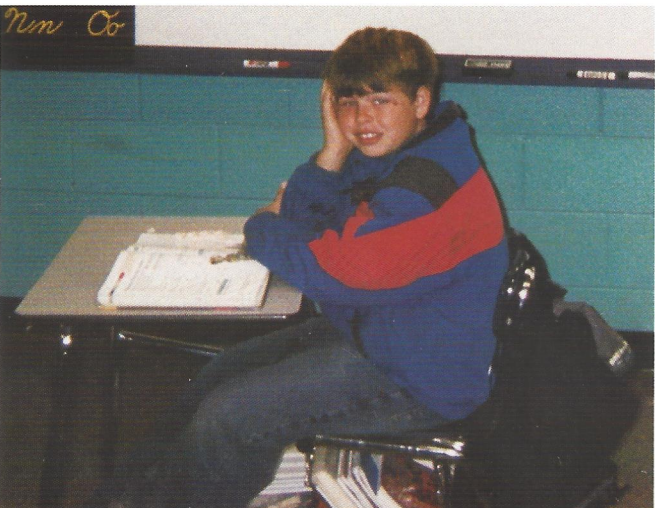

Ashley Freeman has a beautiful smile and looks pretty relaxed to be in class.

The fourth grade is a lively class made up of nine students. Their favorite subjects are math and spelling.

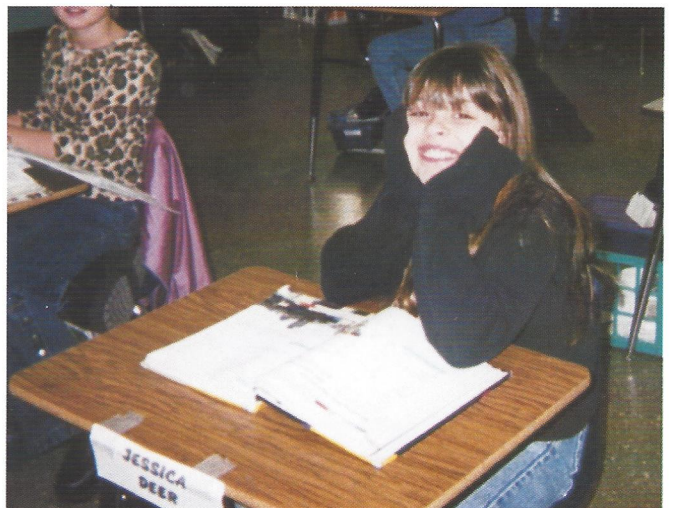

On the weekends, the fourth graders like to eat, farm, sleep, bowl, and play video games. Their favorite foods are ice cream, pizza, spaghetti, beans, chicken, and shrimp.

Jessica, Mark, Victoria, and Ashley all want to be veterinarians when they grow up. Lindsey wants to be a pharmacist. Austin wants to be in the Navy. Taylor P. wants to be a farmer and Taylor V. wants to grow turf for football fields just like his dad. Justin wants to be an artist.

There is no surprise that the favorite holiday of this class is Christmas!

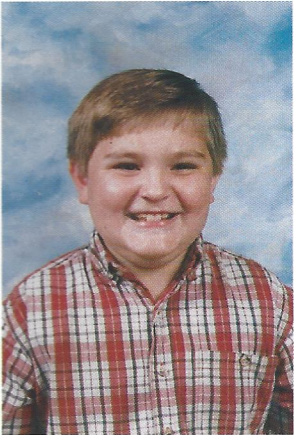

Mark Whisenhunt looks like he can't wait for class to be over so he can go to recess.

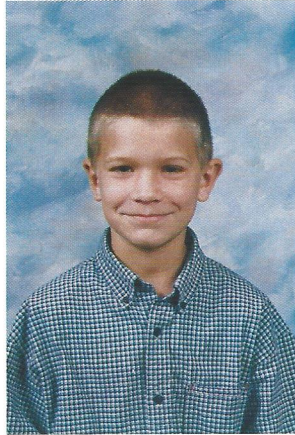

Jessica Deer is such a "dear" young lady. Looks like she's warming her hands with her sleeves!

Third Grade ~ Class of 2012

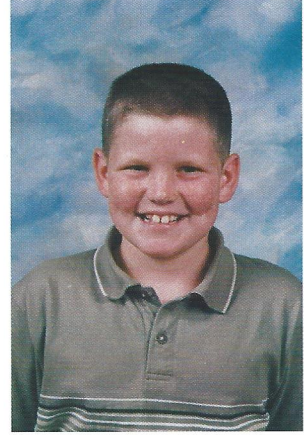

Aaron Brickle

Travis Martin

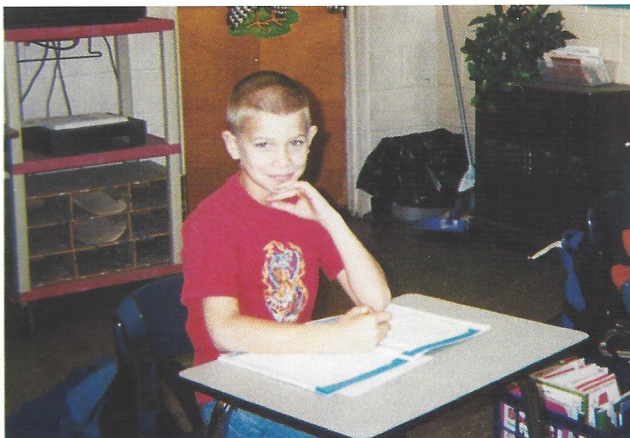

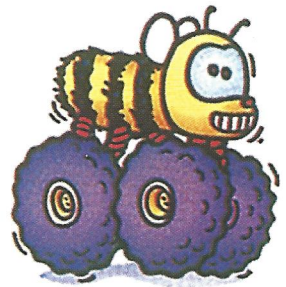

Lauren Rentz

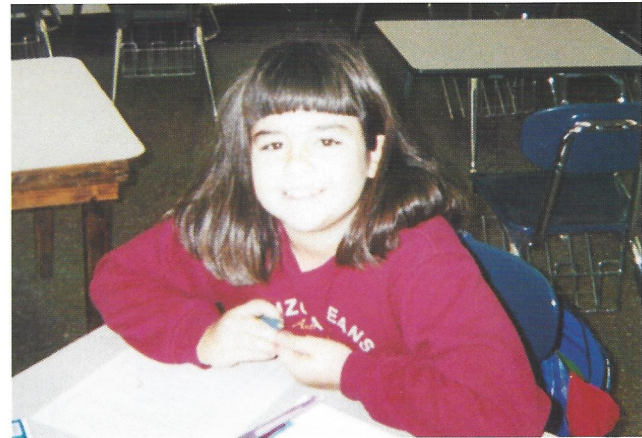

Nelson Rentz

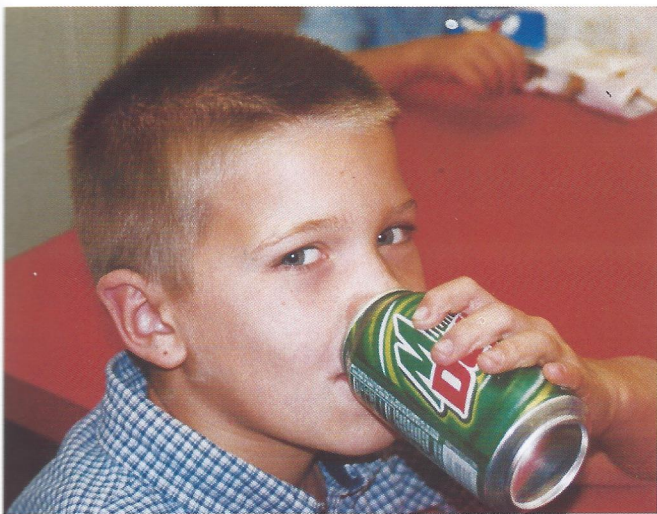

Mrs. Way gives Aaron Brickle a helping hand with his classwork.

Travis Martin expresses a serious composure during class time.

Pretty Laura Rentz is “queen” of her class and handles the boys well.

Travis enjoys that Mountain Dew at lunch.

Mrs. Way seems to be having a fun and interesting year with these four students. Their favorite part of the day is recess, of course.

Laura's favorite subject is social studies, Travis and Nelson likes science, and Aaron prefers math.

Everyone agrees that Travis has the most energy and Laura is the quietest.

After school, Aaron watches TV, Laura and Nelson play Playstation, and Travis rides his four wheeler. Nelson will spend his summer helping his dad on the farm while Travis, Laura, and Aaron will be watching TV.

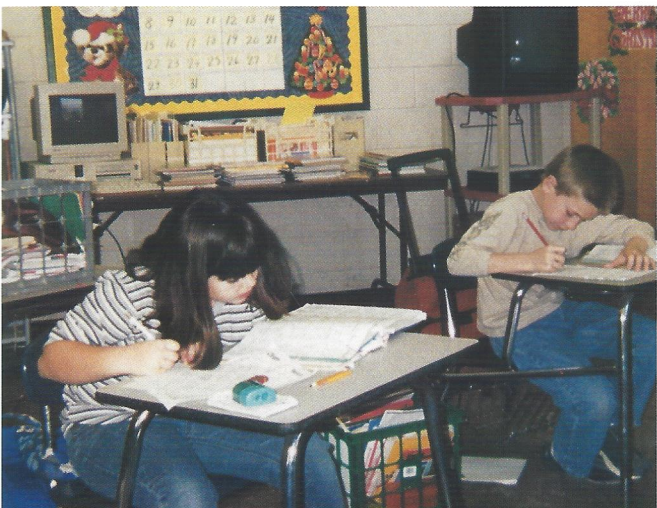

When these students grow up, Laura wants to be a doctor, Nelson wants to be a farmer, and Travis and Aaron want to be well-drillers.

The Three Stooges in action! What a trio Laura, Nelson and Travis make.

Nelson has such a serious look. Maybe he's just tired.

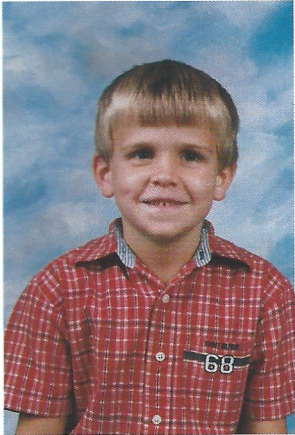

Laura and Travis are busy as bees doing classwork.

Mrs. Way takes a moment to meditate.

Second Grade ~ Class of 2013

Taylor Bailey

Brooke Barr

Katherine Blatchley

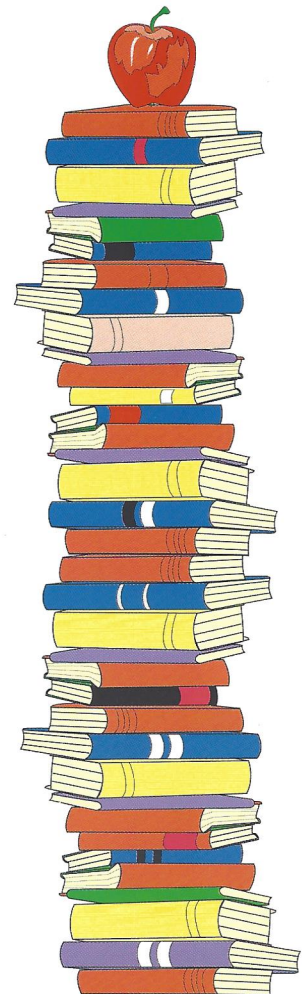

Leslie Davenport

Kasey Mixon

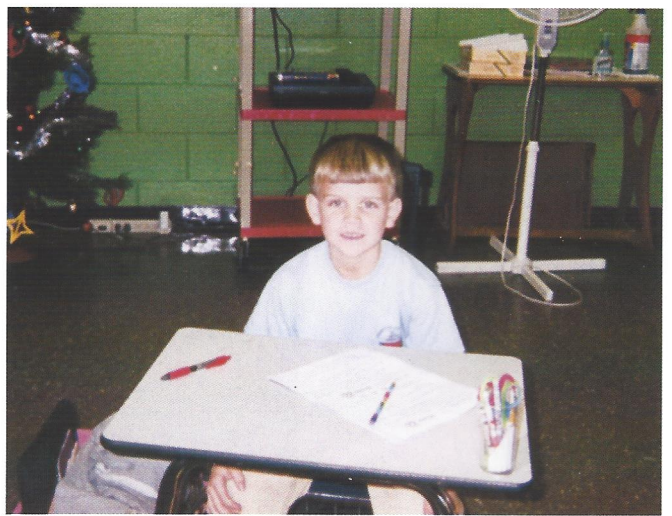

Leslie Bailey, Kasey Mixon, and Matthew Avant help decorate the class for Thanksgiving.

Taylor and Brooke are very studious and love to earn good grades.

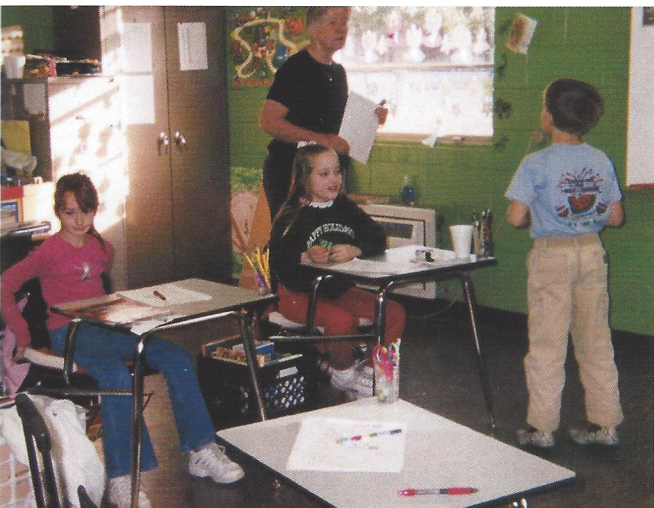

Matthew is the "king" of his class and enjoys all the attention the girls give him.

Katherine Blatchley is a pleasant addition to the second grade.

Leslie D. looks a little too tired but Kasey will get her work done promptly.

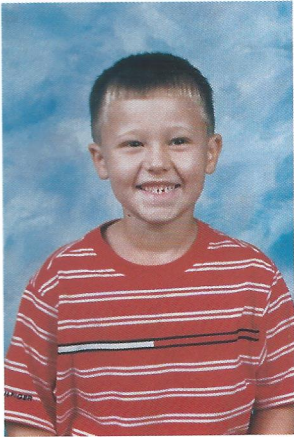

Brooke and Leslie B. listen while Matthew discusses something important with Mrs. Renew.

Mrs. Renew is the second grade teacher. She has her hands full this year with six very energetic girls and ONE boy! Their favorite subjects are math, handwriting, and phonics. Kat is the class clown and Brooke is the quiet one. Their favorite games to play at recess are Little Red Fox, Freeze Tag, and Duck, Duck, Goose.

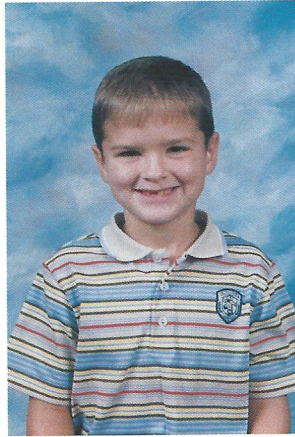

Some of the second graders are ready to advance to third grade but others would rather to stay where they are.

The students want everyone to know they love Mrs. Renew very much!

The first graders and Mrs. Fulmer got all dressed up for Thanksgiving as Pilgrims and Indians.

Josh, Wayne, Pressley, Sarah, and Justin are ready to participate in class.

Mrs. Fulmer watches over Mari, Katelyn, Farah, and Corey.

The first grade loves being in the “big school.” They really enjoy Mrs. Fulmer’s class. Corey’s favorite subject is reading, Josh’s is phonics, and Justin likes math.

Their favorite things to do away from school include riding horses and golf carts and going on trips to Florida.

They all have big plans for the future. Katelyn wants to be a vet, Farah wants to be a teacher, Sarah wants to be a firewoman, and Mary wants to be a cowgirl. Pressley’s favorite TV show is “Animal Planet.” Wayne’s favorite channel is Discovery.

Kindergarten Kicking Off

Emily enjoys playing outside during recess.

Wow! What an exciting time Mrs. Marie has with her four and five year olds. There is never a dull moment but Mrs. Marie knows how to keep things in order.

All the students LOVE Mrs. Marie and she really loves them.

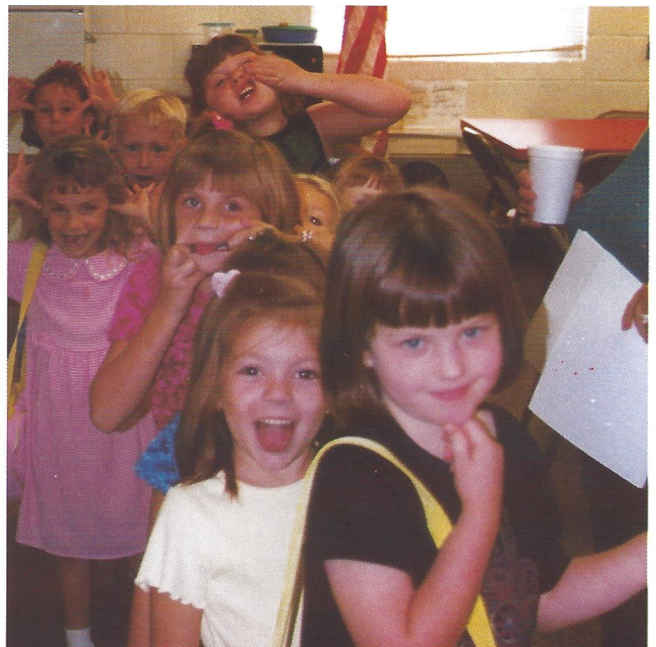

As you can see in the below picture, they love to clown around but they also know they are in class to learn and they take full advantage of that. These young students can read and do math problems that surprise many people but it is no surprise to the AJA family because this is the goal of our kindergarten class at AJA (to introduce students to the learning process and discipline required to reach that goal).

There's time for play, rest, singing, poetry, and Bible verses and you will be able to see many of their accomplishments at May Day and Kindergarten graduation.

Keep up the good work, Kindergarteners! We're looking forward to you moving into "big" school and beginning first grade!

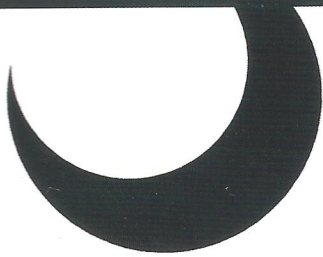

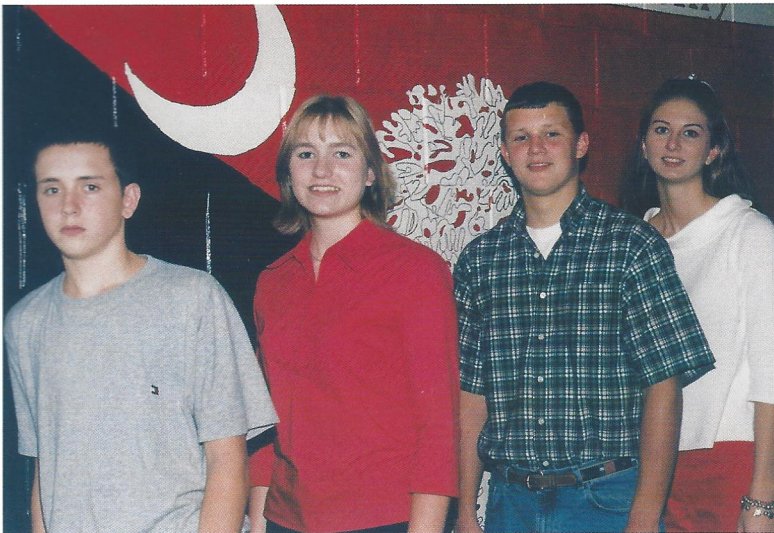

This energetic group enjoys a wide variety of activities from kickball to cooking.

With tummies full, the kindergarteners are ready to head outside to play.
