

Many changes have occurred for us all in the past 4 years. The pride we feel in our hearts as your high school years are coming to completion is indescribable. Feel confident as you enter the next phase in your life, and know that you can be anything you strive to be. Remember all the people who helped you along the way with gratitude and fondness. And most of all, remember we all love you very much! Great Job!

With Love, Mom and Dad
