Alma Mater

Beside the highway where crowds are passing,
Stands Andrew Jackson, proud Academy
And all will find, who seek within her portals,
A wealth of wisdom, truth, and loyalty.

Dear Andrew Jackson, we will sing thy praises,
And lift on high, thy banner to the sky
Thy loft aims, will be our inspiration,
To deeds of honor as the years go by.

2016

The 2015-2016 Jacksonian is proudly dedicated to Mrs. Lesia McCormick

Mrs. Lesia McCormick is the Canteen Manager/ Secretary Aid at Andrew Jackson Academy. She is married to Chris McCormick and they have two children, Ashley who is a graduate of the AJA class of 2013 and Brett who is a junior. In her free time, Mrs. Lesia enjoys spending time with her family. Her favorite TV show is Hawaii 5-0.

Mrs. Lesia says the thing she loves the most about Andrew Jackson Academy is the people. Everybody has a great attitude, works well together, and gets along.

We would like to thank you, Mrs. Lesia, for all of your hard work and dedication to Andrew Jackson.

Elementary Teacher of the Year

Mrs. April McMillan has been teaching at Andrew Jackson Academy for 6 years and is the second grade teacher. She graduated from the University of South Carolina with a degree in Elementary Education. She and her husband Jeremy reside in Smoaks, South Carolina and they have one son, Matthew, who is a junior at AJA. In her free time she enjoys riding horses and baking. Her favorite TV show is The Middle.

Before she began teaching, Mrs. April worked as an accountant for four years and was a substitute teacher at Colleton Prep. When asked what is her favorite part about teaching she said the light bulb moments, when you see a child struggling and they finally get it.

High School Teacher of the Year

Mrs. Jan Rogers is new to Andrew Jackson Academy this year. She is the 9th grade homeroom teacher, high school science teacher, and 7th grade literature teacher. She is married to Charles Rogers and they have an eight year old Australian Shepherd named Matilda. Mrs. Jan was the Salutatorian of the Andrew Jackson class of 1978 and received a degree in education from the University of South Carolina. She later earned her masters plus 30 from the Citadel. In her free time, Mrs. Jan loves to cook and travel.

Before her teaching career, Mrs. Jan spent 20 years working as a florist. During her 11 years teaching, she has taught at Colleton Prep, Colleton County High School, Andrew Jackson Academy, and is currently teaching Western Civilization at Denmark Technical College. She says that her favorite thing about teaching is the children.

As much as you have learned from me as my son, I have learned twice as much being your father. You were my rock, my conscience, and always my friend through the hard times we have faced together. Your dedication and drive to be the best you can possibly be in anything you do is an inspiration to everyone around you. God laid out a path for you from birth. You were one of the few wise enough to follow it. Stay the course son and you will never fall short of your goals.

I love you my Little Bear. And couldn't be more proud...

Job Mathias

Job,

It is hard to believe that it is your turn to start another chapter of your life. Time has passed so quickly, it seems like in some ways you just started 1st grade now you're graduating, moving on to bigger and better things. We are very proud of all that you have accomplished and all that you have overcome through these years. Remember you are very special. We thank God that you are still with us. No matter how big you get you will still be our little boy. You can do anything you set your mind to, even maybe eat something other than chicken. We love you and hope all of your dreams come true. Always remember to keep God in your life, get up early, work hard, and all of your dreams will have a better chance.

Love,
Daddy and Momma

Good luck in the coming years. We have no doubt that you will go in the direction where you will be led to do great things.

It has been an honor to have you as our first born daughter. You have given us so much joy and happiness throughout the years as we've watched you mature into a beautiful Christian young lady. It seems like only yesterday that you were taking your first steps, but now you are taking your first steps into your future. As you start your new journey, always allow God to order your steps so that you will be in his divine will. Jeremiah 29:11 says "For I know the plans I have for you," declares the LORD, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future."

Always reach for the Heavens and continue to let your light shine for Jesus Christ. We will always love you no matter where life takes you... Congratulations on All of Your Achievements! We love you!

With your focus and determination, there is "No Mountain" you can't climb. A big, wonderful, world is out there for you. Go conquer it! I am so very proud of you. Grandma

Precious granddaughter, How can it be that our little angel, princess, pumpkin pie has already grown into a beautiful young woman, a junior in high school? Wasn't it just yesterday that we watched you breathe your first breath and cry your first cry?
