We, the members of the 1959 Annual Staff, affectionately dedicate this, the fourth volume of the Crossroads, to Mrs. R. M. Hightower and Mrs. J. H. Peters, who have helped us carry along the weight of big responsibilities which has lightened the load for us students.

We would like to express our ardent appreciation for them both - for their sweetness - sense of humor - deep understanding - willingness to help at all times - ability to cope with those perpetual permissions - and to solve many of our big problems.
