

FOREWORD

From the beginning of the Bells High School in September of 1955 to the end of 1960, the school has seen many changes. We, too, will see and undergo changes. With this in mind THE CROSSROADS staff has endeavored to reflect the scenes and incidents of the fifth year and to open the way for the promises of tomorrow. In some future time and in some way we hope this edition will bring back memories of our life at Bells High during 1960.

ALMA MATER

Where cross the two highroads
And many pass by
Our fair Alma Mater stands
Proud 'gainst the sky
And all who seek wisdom
In her halls shall find
A heart that is noble
And gentle, and kind.

We hail thee Bells High School
Beloved Alma Mater
Our steps shall not falter
The light never fail
We drink at the fountain
Of clear sparkling water
We pledge to thee our loyalty,
Bells High All Hail!
