

Elementary

The elementary students from this district all enter Bells Junior High School in the seventh grade. It is our desire to have all schools in the district interested and in close relationship with each other. The annual staff is happy to have the honor and privilege of publishing the faculties and students of these schools in the 1961 Edition of the CROSSROADS.

