

Planning for the future in Home Economics they learn the fundamentals of foods and cooking, sewing, home decorations, home improvements, home nursing, and first aid. Along with their class work they have guided home experiences which they do at home. They are learning today to build better homes tomorrow.

Home Economics