

Classes

"To everything there is a season and a time"- Ecclesiastes 3. At Bells we feel that the major portion of our time should be spent in work and study but we try to add enough relaxation and fun to keep "Jack from being a dull boy". Our aim is to plan the time we spend together at school to meet the challenge of these changing times.