Senior Class of 1962

On that long awaited night of May 30, the Class of '62 marched into the auditorium for their commencement exercises.

This night closed four years of unforgettable experiences.

While there were some who hated to leave the walls of B.H.S., others were eager to look ahead. They will look back with sadness in the years to come remembering those happy four years.

As freshmen, they found that high school was new and exciting. They were scared but happy.

As sophomores, they became more confident and began to join clubs and other activities and sports.

The most exciting year, perhaps, was their junior year. Joined by students from Ehrhardt, they sold magazines, sponsored the Harvest Carnival, decorated for and presented a Hawaiian Junior-Senior.

Now, as this year came to a close, some of their eagerness to finish high school faded away. Receiving rings, measuring for caps and gowns, Class Day - activities they looked forward to with great anticipation are finished. But memories of their high school days made the class of '62 a little reluctant to bid goodbye to Bells High School.
