

Carolyn Carter leaves for Girls' State.

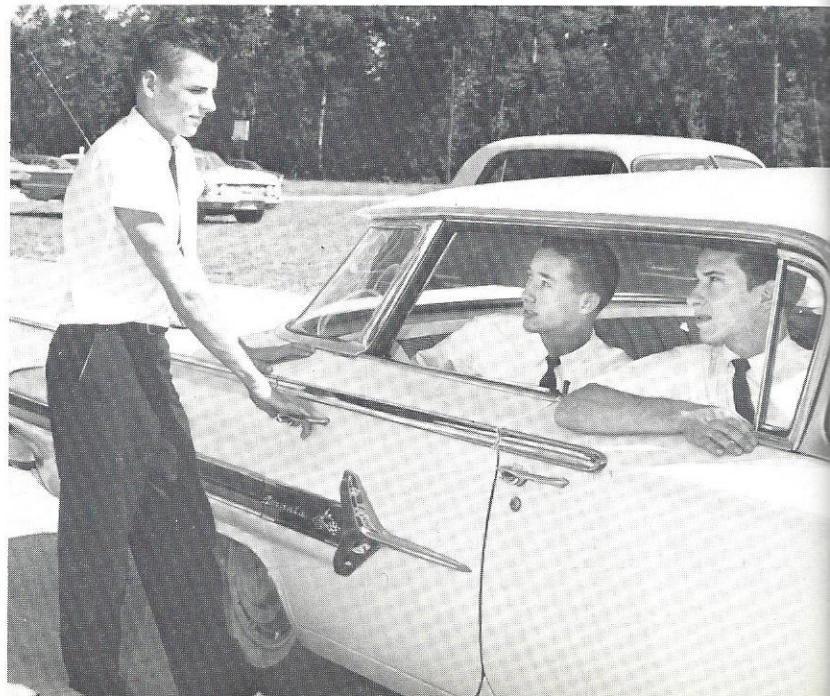

Girl and Boy Staters

Palmetto Girls' State is sponsored by the American Legion of South Carolina. It is held at the University of South Carolina annually. Girls who attend this convention are chosen on the basis of leadership, scholarship, and participation. At this convention the girls learn about the Government and its functions. Carolyn Carter represented Bells High School this year. She was chosen by the faculty and sponsored by the Walterboro American Legion Post.

Palmetto Boys' State is sponsored by the American Legion of South Carolina. It is held at the University of South Carolina annually. It is a great honor for a boy to go to Boys' State. They are chosen from their school on the basis of leadership, scholarship, and participation. The representatives are picked by the school faculty and sponsored by the local American Legion Post. Joe Strickland was chosen by the Bells High School Faculty and sent by the American Legion Post of Walterboro. Johnny Carter and Earl Douglas were chosen by the Ehrhardt faculty. Johnny was sent by the Ehrhardt Lions Club and Earl was sent by the Bamberg County American Legion Post.

Johnny Carter, Earl Douglas, and Joe Strickland.

Wait boys, don't leave me, I'm on my way to Boys' State too!
