

Advertisements

"Be ruled by time, the wisest counsellor of all." Many years of experience have shown us that we have faithful allies as we attempt to publish our school annual. For a long time these advertisements have meant much to us. Manytimes our school's yearly history would not have been a success without the financial help of our "ads."