

Activities

Student activities are many and varied. They offer many ways for all types of boys and girls to participate in as many fields as possible. These activities include clubs, contests, student publications, band, music, governments. Much of the character and the making of a better citizen come through these activities.

