The Study of English —

The English department strives to help each student. It is hoped that each student will learn to communicate effectively in speech and writing.

Mrs. Peters tries to help her students individually.

Allan is explaining morphemes.

James gives a report on Chaucer.

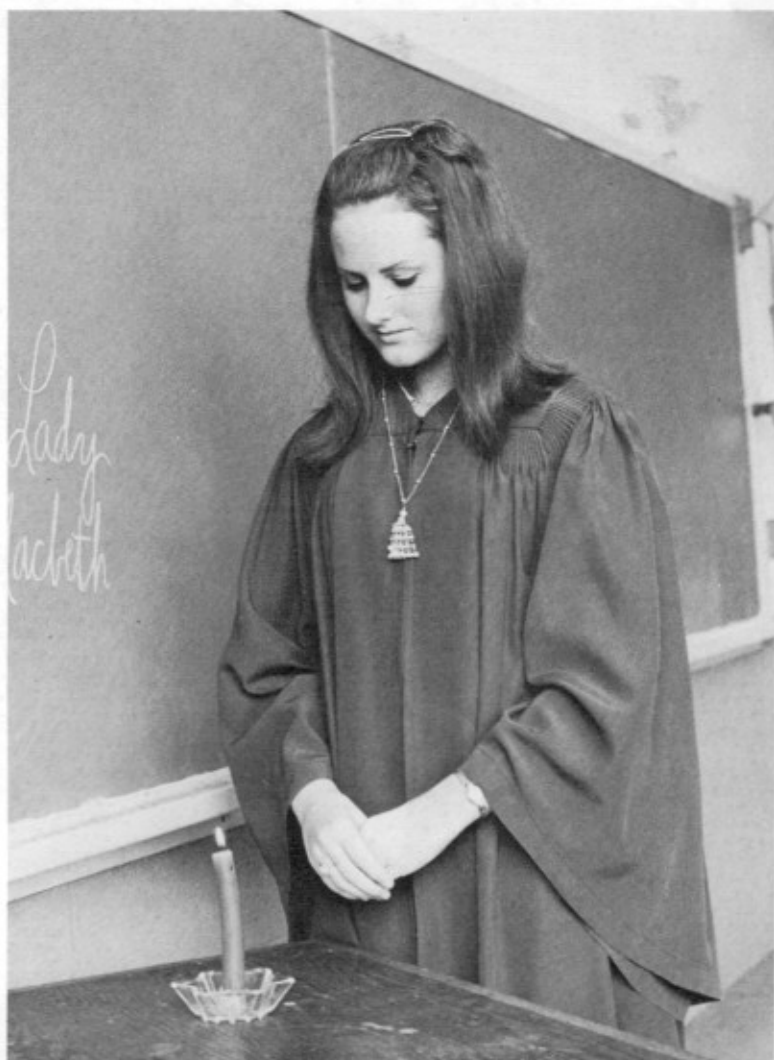

Mrs. Spire's class works with dictionaries often.

A Beneficial Factor

Teresa receives assistance from Mrs. Spires.

Lady Macbeth, a character from Shakespeare's play "Macbeth" studied by the Seniors.

Riley studies a map of Shakespeare's Britain.

Mathematics Leads to Reasoning

Math is a subject which teaches a person to understand and use his reasoning power. This will become a definite advantage to him as he goes to meet the challenges of the world.

The math department at Bells is equipped to teach all phases of this subject.

Mrs. Stephens explains to her students how to solve this problem.

Algebra students work diligently on their test.

Mrs. Stephens assists Linda.

Mrs. McAbee places the assignment on the board.

Miss Gianakis allows her students to use a microscope.

Mr. Spires helps Gena to find the diagram of the human body.

James gives a report to his psychology class.

Science — Promoter of Experimentation

Students studying in the field of science find it a challenging subject. They explore the known and the unknown.

From this instrument students learn about the earth's rotation.

Home Economics

The Home Economics course teaches its students the basic fundamentals about activities in the home today. This prepares them for building better homes in the future.

These girls are learning the proper way to mix a cake.

Mrs. Summers is taking over one of her student's jobs.

These students are learning how to sew properly.

Agriculture — A Must for Future Farmers

Some of Mr. Smoak's students and their greenhouse.

This course offers extensive training in agriculture. The class participates in many interesting activities during the year such as field trips, farming programs, and Future Farmer activities.

David and Terry working with the electric saw in the shop.

Travis is preparing to take his hog to the fair to put on display.

History

The aim of the History department is to teach students about the past, help them to understand the present, and to prepare them for the future.

Mr. Ulmer helps Phyllis to locate Austria.

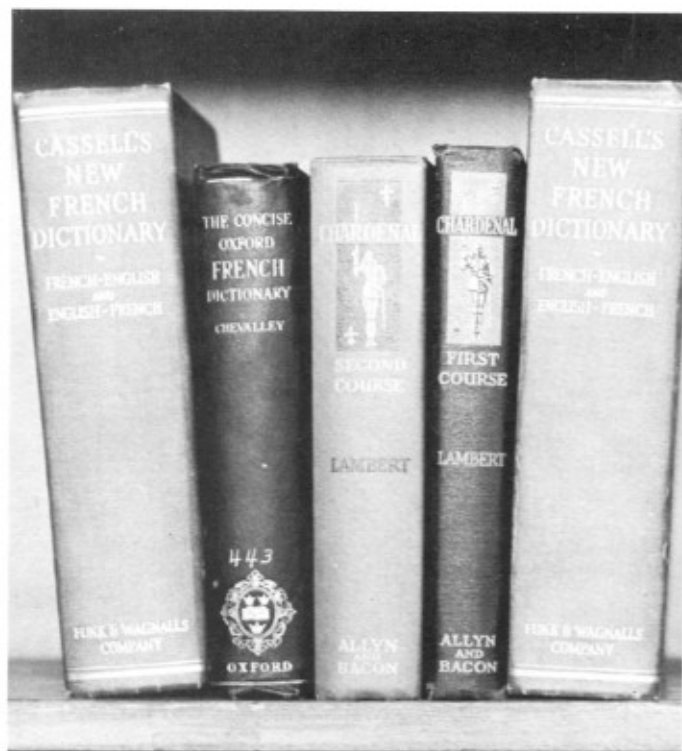

Students here take notes vigorously.

Mr. Killian takes advantage of his new equipment in his classes.

Mr. Killian and Claudette, his teacher aide, go through their files.

French — A Voice of Bells

Instruction in a foreign language is a necessity in the modern world of today. Students learn proper grammar, pronunciation, and the cultural aspects of France.

Mr. Killian watches as his students take their French test.

Cherry is translating one of the sentences from her book.

Tumbling is a new phase in P.E. at Bells.

Dean practices a layup.

P.E. — A Must

Physical Education is a must for students at Bells. It helps to keep the students physically fit.

These students perform their exercises.

Here a group is learning the basics of football.

This group is taking a shot at finger painting.

Belinda is trying her hand at a geometric type of painting.

Mr. Mackintosh is placing some of his students' work on display.

Art — An Outlet for Expression

This year is the first year that art has been taught at Bells. It is proving to be very interesting and rewarding to its students.

Commerce

Shorthand students take notes.

A Preparation for Business

This course prepares students for careers in the business world. It may play a major part in the selection of an occupation.

Mrs. Kirkland looks over a shorthand assignment.

Skill is a basic in typing.

"Can you make a hit record."

Journalism and Driver Education

These are two new subjects being taught this year also. The journalism course is preparing students for a future in writing while at the same time driver education teaches the fundamentals of driving.

Mr. McAbee explains to Donna the basics of starting a car.

Minnie and Pam discuss the effectiveness of this newspaper outline.

The journalism class is assigned certain subjects on which they must write articles.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS AND ADVISORS: Mr. McAbee, Timmy Polk, Secretary; Carey Strickland, President; Johnny Ulmer, Treasurer; Mr. McCulley. Roger Waltz, Vice President, was absent.

Student Council activities for the year include keeping a school calendar, which keeps down conflicts of dates. Members keep order in lunch lines each day. While entertaining the student body at a Christmas assembly, many brought gifts to share with others less fortunate.

ANNUAL STAFF

Corey Ulmer and Robert Phillips work diligently to make sure the business of the staff is carried out properly. Cherry Hudson also works devotedly with Mrs. Pefer in preparing an excellent yearbook for the students at B.H.S.

As in the above picture, the Crossroads staff met many times to plan work. Staff members include, standing, Robert Phillips, Sue Sauls, Cindy Sauls, Nandy Godley, Kay Axson, Corey Ulmer, and, Sitting, Cherry Padgett, Gena Ulmer, Cherry Hudson, Angela Thomas, Julian Garris, and Gail Peters. staff is very well organized. Besides having an editor that has the task of seeing to it that all sections are properly done, we have assistant editors. They are: Cherry Padgett, classes editor; Angela Thomas, features editor; Gail Peters, activities editor; and Julian Garris, sports editor.

TIME, PATIENCE, WORK AND LOADS OF PERSEVERANCE.

These factors the Crossroads staff needs to meet that ever-threatening deadline. Through hours of planning, picture-taking, cropping, copy-writing, and checking, staff members piece together the history of the year involving each individual in the school. The efforts of the Crossroads staff are rewarded when the fruits of their labors are presented to you — the student body.

Victory — 1969

COACH: Ben Killian
MANAGER: Ernest Polk

The football program reached new heights in 1968 as 78 boys participated on the Varsity, Jr. Varsity and Midget teams.

The "building program" finally began earning dividends, as the varsity compiled the great record of 8 wins, 2 losses, and 1 tie. This record was all the more impressive, as it marked the first winning season in varsity football in the history of Bells High School.

STUDENTS:

We would like to express to you, the student body, our thanks for making this yearbook possible. If it hadn't been for your help and cooperation it would have been impossible to get the annual out. Also, thanks to the teachers for their help and patience during picture taking and various other activities that interrupted their daily schedule. Last but not least, we would like to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Peters for her help and guidance during this year.
