

Calvary Christian School's first Homecoming 1978 was marked by mist and light rain. The weather was the only thing that was bad. Calvary romped Southgate 10 to 1 with triple scoring from George Johnston and Tony Pilo. Charles Crosby goalied most of the game without being scored upon. Miss Brenda Kinard was crowned Homecoming Queen of 1978. The Homecoming court consisted of: Teresa Smith and Wanda Webster of the seventh grade, and Charlotte Floyd and Lisa Smyly of the eighth grade. Jason Langdale and Rebekah Register were the crown bearer and flower girl respectively.
