

JOHN STOKES
Editor-in-Chief

The newspaper is one of the main sources of interest at school, letting everyone into the humorous situations which occur on campus more frequently than might be imagined. It also provides an outlet for general information about the academy and the faculty. Little realized is the effort which these boys put into their work, but their satisfaction comes when the paper is out, and they see the many smiles which show appreciation for our school's newspaper.

ADJUTANT STAFF

Seated, Left to Right: BYRUM, MITCHEM, HAMILTON, STOKES, STACK, WILSON, J. P., SEEBER. Standing: MILLS DOTTERER, HUNTER, MAYER, STINSON, GIBSON, F. P., MICHAEL. Not Pictured: LANGLEY.