

FOREWORD

To those who have spent a portion of their youth in this school; to those who have done more than their share to guide us; to all the students and personnel at Camden Military Academy, we present a post-mortem record of the school year 1959-1960 in hopes that someday as you leaf through the pages, you will find some of your fondest memories imprinted here.