Dear Mr. Wright:

I am happy to be a part of your Excalibur staff program in the selection of your Queen for the Year.

I am returning to you all photographs. My selections, which were very difficult to make, are as follows:

Queen	- Miss Brenda Hampton
Princesses - (Alphabetical order)	Miss Nancy Leigh Baker - Miss Susie Henn Miss Peg McElveen Miss Judy Morgan

Really, the task of selecting a winner in a beauty contest is a hard one. I wish that I could have selected many instead of just one. So many of these lovely young ladies surely deserve top recognition.

May I express to you, and through you to the Corps of Cadets of the Camden Military Academy, my sincere good wishes for a fine year. You young men are attending a fine institution under the most capable and dedicated direction of Colonel J. F. Risher, your president. We are certainly proud of the fact that he is a Citadel man. Yours is the opportunity to get your training under a system that fits each of you to take your proper place in our society as good American citizens.

With every good wish.

Sincerely,

Mark W. Clark

P.S. My autographed photograph which you have requested will be forwarded under separate cover.
