Carlisle

This was the sweetest victory for the Spartans. Late in the second quarter Howdy McTeer found running room off left tackle and raced 36 yards for the score. After an unsuccessful try for the point, the Spartans led 6-0.

Early in the second half fullback Tommy Griffiths, led by a host of blockers, sprinted 65 yards for the touchdown.

The offensive play was led by Tommy Griffiths and Howdy McTeer, while Joe Napolitano and Charles Fulgieri starred for the defense.

The services of end Frank Rountree were lost for the season due to a shoulder injury.

The Spartans gained 270 yards rushing while the passing attack accounted for 84.

Final score 13-0.
