

Seventy-five seniors, the largest graduating class in the history of the school, received diplomas this year. The Very Rev. Mosgr. Donald C. Hamburger of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church gave the invocation and benediction. The Rev. Henry F. Collins of Columbia, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of Masons of South Carolina, was the speaker.

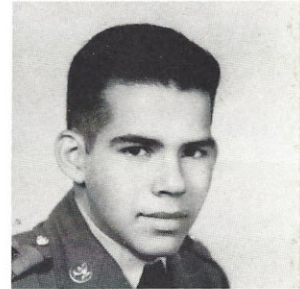

Major James T. Dallas, Commandant of Cadets, issued awards to the outstanding cadets of the academic year. Highest averages attained:

Freshman	Richard E. Rozier	94.0
Sophomore	John W. Mitchell, Jr.	93.25
Junior	Donald E. Dukes	94.25
Senior	Allen D. Moran	94.50

A special commendation was given Cadet Major John Brinson Dotterer, Jr. of Charleston, S.C. for meritorious service during his four years at C.M.A. The James F. Risher Ideal

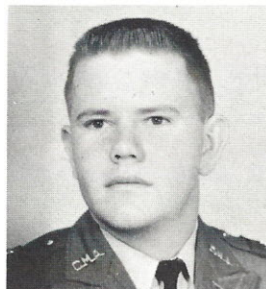

Cadet Award was presented to Cadet Dotterer for being the Cadet who most typified the spirit of the school.

The winner of the Best Drilled Cadet Award was Rafael A. Martinez. Runners-up were Michael P. Lovejoy and William R. Birt, III.

Department Medal winners were William Henry Gatch, John T. Foster, Jr., Allen D. Moran and Carl P. Boland, Jr.

Cadet Captain Thomas H. Eller, Jr. was presented a medal in recognition of his company's winning of Company Competition and the Honor Company designation.

The Intramural Award for the year was presented to Cadet Captain Thomas H. McGeer of Company "B".