Commencement Exercises were held on the Academy Campus at 11:00 AM, Monday, 3 June for a class of 60 graduates. After the advance of the colors, the invocation was given by Rev. E. E. Glenn, D. D., pastor of the Lyttleton Street Methodist Church in Camden. This was followed by the presentation of medals by Lt. Col. James T. Dallas, the Commandant, and the singing of the Alma Mater. Col. Lanning P. Risher, Headmaster, introduced the speaker for the day, the Hon. F. Hall Yarborough, a member of the South Carolina House of Representatives from Orangeburg. Mr. Yarborough presented a stirring lesson on "the strait and narrow path," interspersed with humorous comments. Col. James F. Risher, President, presented the diplomas, after which the general orders were read. This was followed by the Cadet Prayer and the benediction. With the sounding of echo taps, another year at Camden Military Academy was ended.
