

James E. Nolan

HIGHEST SCHOLASTIC AVERAGES

An award is given to the cadet who maintains the highest scholastic average in his class for the school year. This year's awards go to: Senior: James E. Nolan, Junior: G. Emory Taylor, Sophomore: Richard E. Rozier, Freshman: C. Paul Smith.

HONOR COMPANY

Company "A" was designated Honor Company for 1963. The company went forward and received their colors at dress parade. Company "A" is commanded by Cadet Captain John D. Matthews.

John D. Matthews

BEST DRILLED CADET

A medal is given to that cadet who is adjudged the Best-Drilled Cadet, based on his proficiency in close-order drill, and in the execution of the rifle manual. The winner of this honor was chosen from the three finalists, Cadets Horton, Matthews, and Mitchell, J. W. The winner was John D. Matthews.

