

COMMISSIONED OFFICERS

The commissioned officers shoulder the responsibility of the care of our young men, who need their guidance and example. These cadet officers have earned their commissions by being outstanding young men in all phases of military life.