

Delta Kappa Sigma is comprised of an elite membership chosen from the junior and senior classes by the faculty. The Greek word Delta Kappa Sigma stands for "the good of the school." Cadets obtain admission to the fraternity on the basis of scholarship and good behavior.

"Our suggestion for a bar on second floor, and unlimited leaves for 85 average students met with vigorous protests. Are there any other ideas?"

DKS' newly initiated members.

