

"A book, a book; my kingdom for a book!"

Paper, glue, string . . . and printer's ink. Add a creative mind—a book—a LIBRARY.

An imaginative mind,
A ready wit,
Two busy hands,
A growing accession book.
—Mrs. D.

Library Staff

The library contains books of all descriptions—magazines, and newspapers for cadet enjoyment. The library staff supervises library work both during the day and in the evenings. Each assistant contributes three hours of service each week.

"See, see. See Jane. Look,
