

Sophomore Class Of '68

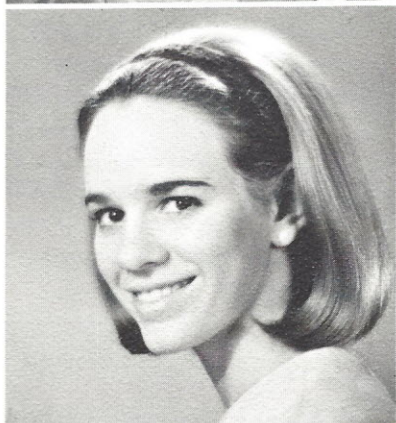

The door was open, in walked the class of 1970. Lost, a little frightened, we watched our identity slip away into the crowd. We were surrounded by new faces in a strange atmosphere. Gradually we came to discover the spirit of Camden Military and took pride in becoming an integral part of it. It has been a good year; the next two years will be even better. We'll make them great. You can count on the class of 1970.
