

HISTORY OF DEDICATION

We of the 1969 class of Camden Military Academy do dedicate for his unselfish devotion to our school, this, our annual.

For his years of hard work to make men of the cadets at Camden Military Academy, no words can truly express our gratitude to "Sarge". When all else around us seemed to falter and blur, his guidance and leadership never failed, and in times of stress he always stood faithful and true.

Sgt. Charles Wilson was born in Kings Mountain, North Carolina, entered military service early in life, and has fought for America in many battles and in many lands; and just as he never failed the trust of the country he loves, he never failed in his service to C.M.A.

Sgt. Wilson will leave the Academy this year, but hundreds of cadets will always remember Sgt. "Chuck" Wilson as being a fair and helpful man who could be relied upon. To Sgt. Wilson we want to say "Thank you and good luck."
