

"GET BACK . . ."

The cadet corps of Camden Military Academy could never find someone to take the place of "Mom". There is not a cadet at Camden who does not have a place to go when they need someone to talk to. Many times a cadet will come across a problem that requires a mother's understanding. Mrs. Rose always finds a solution for all of her "boys". Sometimes it seems home is very far away or maybe even a part of the past but it is always comforting to know that there is someone who understands a young man.

Having a son of her own, "Mom" is not always as "soft as butter" because among her many qualities she knows that firmness is essential in maintaining respect from her many admirers. Many times we have let her down but no one can say Mrs. Rose has ever betrayed our trust.

Not only is Mrs. Rose our "Mom," she is also a top-notch nurse. From patching up the Spartans to the shot I never felt, she has continued her dedicated practice here to the highest of her ability. She handles every case tactfully from the inspection we didn't want to go to, to the time we were really sick. Andy Rose works hard, sometimes to the point of exhaustion. Everything seems to get put on Mrs. Rose, from a homesick cadet to the Tea dance. Even though she faces every day with the responsibility of two hundred and forty young men, she always does more than she is required to do. Because of her efforts and positive attitude of what she wants done, she has brought the infirmary up to the highest standard that she possibly can.

Because of "Mom's" understanding, proficiency in her profession, and diligent work, we of the senior class take pride in dedicating this NINETEEN SEVENTY EXCALIBUR to MRS. ANDY ROSE.
