The time has finally come for the class of "71" to pack up their belongings for the last time of their stay at C.M.A. They will leave with only memories of the past and the knowledge which the school has bestowed upon them. For many, C.M.A. has changed their lives so as to have a most important bearing on the future.

As each senior leaves the academy, he can say that he has done his part to preserve the sovereignty of the school and the trials of life. Only the future will tell whether he will triumph over life's complexities or fail. The road ahead is a rough one, but he can overcome and conquer his problems if he supplies the needed force that can be drawn from his experiences. Graduates of the class of 1971, may you truly stand out in your accepting the challenge and mantle of responsibility of adulthood.
