SENIORS 1972

Poised and ready, the class of 1972 awaits with mixed feelings as they prepare to accept the mantle of responsibility that comes with being seniors. Nearing the end of three years of work, anticipation builds to the unveiling of their senior year—college boards—A.C.T.—writing to college, and experiencing the anxiety of waiting. Waiting for what? For all the ends to string together finally in a web of victory and each one's individualism.

The junior class extends its best wishes to the men of 1971 in hopes that they might be as efficient, if not more so. Here's to a good summer of our final year. Again best wishes to the seniors and all the other cadets at C.M.A.

Shades of yesteryear . . . Is this our Ralphie?

Hollywood bound? ? ? ? Our talented Juniors; Chris Rea on guitar; Eddie Glass on drums.
