

FOOTBALL 1970

Boiling Springs—8 C.M.A.—0 (away)

Our team traveled to Boiling Springs to meet a Triple-A upper state powerhouse. The game was played under the threat of a torrential downpour. Our team was outclassed but not outfought.

After a defensive struggle throughout the game, Boiling Springs managed to score in the waning moments of the game. Huffstetler and Spencer were the outstanding players for C.M.A.

Cowpens—13 C.M.A.—24 (home)

An underdog C.M.A. team upended a team which was to go on to the semi-finals in the state playoffs. Rick Barton hit Doug Dills and Bruce Bivins for key touchdown passes.

Indianland—0 C.M.A.—6 (away)

A hard fought defensive battle resulted in a one touchdown advantage for the Spartans as Barton hit Dills with a pass play covering thirty yards, providing the only score in the game. Both teams played conservative ball.

Spartanburg Day—7 C.M.A.—10 (away)

Guy Mercer's 30-yard field goal in the third quarter enabled the Spartans to win their third game of the season.

Christ School—42 C.M.A.—24 (home)

Bruce Bivins' touchdown and Dennis Bivins' intercepted pass covering 35 yards for a touchdown enabled C.M.A.'s Spartans to lead in the third quarter. Christ School exploded with two quick T.D.s to make it 42-24.

Ingram had 100 yards rushing. Bruce Bivins and "Stick" Anderson played a good defensive game.

Christ School went on to be undefeated and become the independent champions.

