

MAJOR WILLIAM BECKHAM, JR.
Assistant Commandant

Strict, knowledgeable, fair, understanding . . . these are but a few of the adjectives describing the man who is in charge of the discipline, hours, merits and demerits. Through his office there is the changing of the guard and the assignment of duties. The "Bull Ring" . . . his domain, is executed with exactness.

Tactical officer to Battalion Staff, he is second father to the many cadets residing here at C.M.A.

Despite his many duties, he still has time to be a most avid fan and supporter of athletics at the academy.
