

EPILOGUE

The Class of 1971 is coming to the end of its secondary education. Throughout high school we have molded our characters through our efforts in class and extra-curricular activities. From our experiences we have absorbed, formed and used ideas in a way corresponding to the times.

In the same manner also we have attempted to publish a yearbook which corresponds to an era of multi-orbital space flights, miracle drugs, and world peace forums. We have sought to modernize and simplify without sacrificing the purpose of the volume.

It is the hope of the Class of 1971 that this annual will serve its reader as a reminder of the period of his life in which he formed his future.
