

The Sash and Sword, made up of the commissioned officers, represents the status all cadets strive to reach. These chosen few have distinguished themselves throughout their attendance at the academy. One of the privileges of this elite group is the Officers' Lounge, where they may go to relax and ease the burdens of responsibility.

LTC TOMMY WALL

MICHELLE BIDDISON