

The non-commissioned officers are the backbone of the battalion. They help the officers to perform their jobs. They hold positions of Sergeant of the Guard, and Officer of the Guard. The NCO's are composed of the ranks of corporal to command sergeant major. In the next several years the ranks of lieutenant through lieutenant colonel will fall on the shoulders of this year's non-commissioned officers.