CSM Staley

CSM Stanley S. Staley. This is CSM Staley's sixth year of service to C.M.A. He has many responsibilities. Among them head of the supply room, the faculty adviser to the honored James F. Risher guard, and a ROTC instructor. Even though he tried to act rough, he's like a father to all the cadets. We can still hear him say, "When in doubt, salute." We of the Excalibur staff salute you, sir.

C.M.A.'s "Man of the Year" SSG Richard B. Cayton. SSG Cayton is the only active United States Army member at Camden Military Academy. Among his numerous duties and responsibilities, he teaches two JROTC classes twice a week. On the day he's not in class he is always involved in some activity to improve our school.
