Leoffler setting up his match rifle.

Elam preparing to shoot.

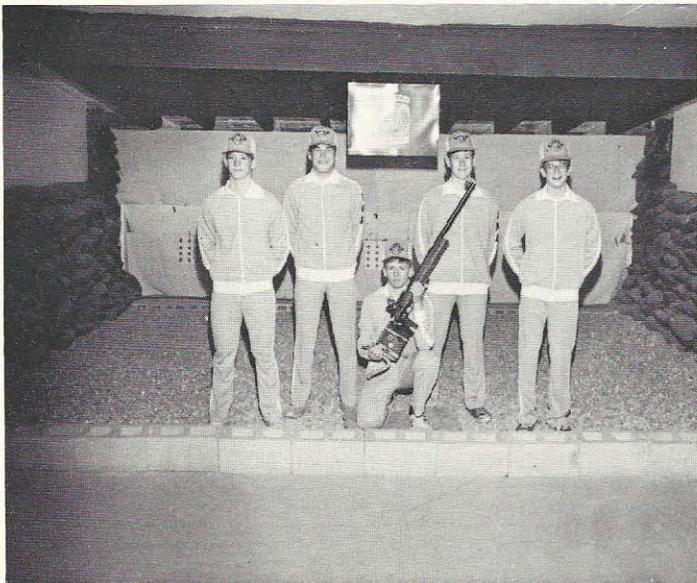

The CMA Rifle Team is rated first in the Third Division of Military Schools, and second in the nation.

Small bore shooting requires that a shooter give the utmost both physically and mentally. The team fires in matches at ranges that vary from 50 feet to 100 yards. They fire in local matches, as well as international matches, national ROTC postal matches, national matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, and the International team trials at Miami, Fla.

Team victories include:

- 2nd team in National ROTC competition
- 1st ROTC Team, S. C.
- 1st N.R.A. Sectional, S. C.
- 1st place team, Florida International Trials.
- 1st place team, 6 postal matches.
- Team members have won a combined total of 156 individual awards.

Our goal: to have an Olympic shooter.

The Jr. Varsity Team: Barth, Oliver, Wells, Leoffler, Cheek.

Elam being awarded one of his trophies.
