

The Adjutant

Leoffler, Baugh, Gilliam, Zoot, Copeland, B. F. Bentson, J. A. Greenburg, Keller, Garner, Rodgers, J. C. Haile, Hertrich, R. L. McCoy, Major Gale

MEAN DOG BLUES. Fri.- 7:00: Sat.- 3:00-5:00

Randy McCoy types the copy for The Adjutant.

Each week Mrs. T. Pylant runs off the copies of the newspaper for us in her office.

Art work and layouts are the responsibility of Brad Bentson.

Debate

As reported earlier, Camden Military Academy's varsity debate team of Pete Adelman and Mark Lewis qualified to represent South Carolina in the National Bicentennial Debates in Williamsburg, Virginia.

Adelman, Lewis, and Chaplain Swager, debate coach and team sponsor, embarked early Monday afternoon for a long week of debate.

The Adjutant, CMA's Best Informer, The Adjutant Staff publishes the school newspaper each Friday.

First semester Major Gale's advanced composition class accepts reporting assignments during instructional periods, secures data, edits copy as a group, types material, establishes layout, and, with Mrs. Pylant's unflinching help and cooperation, publishes and distributes the paper.

Second semester Major Gale's fifth period senior English class performs the same service.

The National Bicentennial Debates are sponsored by the Virginia Independence Bicentennial Commission, and the Bicentennial Council of the Thirteen Original States, with the cooperation of the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation and the College of William and Mary. The debates are held each year of the Bicentennial celebration through 1981.

(DeLoach)