

Drill Team

South Carolina State Champs 1978.

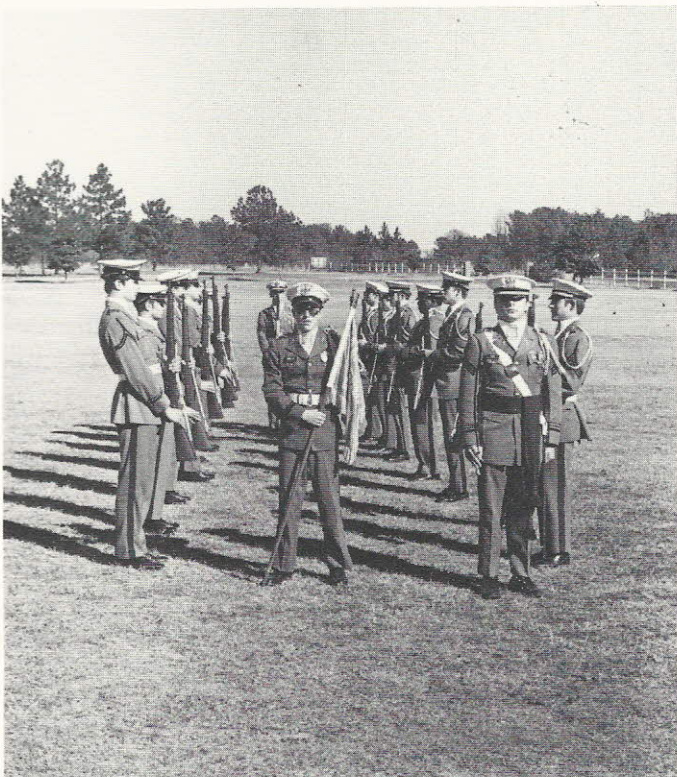

Bringing home the bacon from the Clemson Tiger Drill Meet.

The team commanded by 2nd Lt. Cato.

Team in action during our annual Visitors Day.

1977-78 Drill Team.

Coached by First Sergeant Walters, CMA's Drill Team, the James F. Risher Guard, had a metamorphic and successful year. Old members of the Carlisle Military School Risher's Rifles took a firm grip and began drill practice early in the year. Using the same routines and techniques which earned the Carlisle drill team first place in the nation, CMA marched home with the following awards at the annual Clemson Tiger Drill Meet:

- First Place Fancy Platoon
- First Place Basic Squad
- Third Place Individual
- First Place Overall
- Best Representation of the Army
- South Carolina Governor's Trophy

The Junior Varsity Drill Team, instrumental in supplying replacement members for the James F. Risher Guard, worked hard on their drill this year and promise successful future competitions.
