

J.R.O.T.C.

The Senior Officers of Honor Council make up the review board which evaluates rules infractions and makes recommendations within the corps of cadets. Their combined experience enables them to make sound decisions about the corps. L to R: Barth, Moshoures, Cato, Aviles, Fincher, Watts.

Officer corps responsibilities range from the command of an individual platoon to staff work of the adjutant in the JROTC Department. An officer is distinguished by a gold hat band, a maroon sash, and sword. Members of the officers corps are: 1st Row, Forney, JA Greenburg, Owens, Kiger; 2nd Row, Rodgers, Hawkins, Cato, Chappell, Elam; 3rd Row, Aviles, Fincher, HG Runyan; Back Row, Edwards, Moshoures, Klienbach, Walters, Lewis, Watts. At left, Barth.

The Color Guard consists of Camden Military Academy's finest drilled cadets. Led by Command Sergeant Major RA Jones, the Color Guard participates in all Dress Parades and in various local parades and functions. Members are: (L to R) Gardner, Blevins, TB Bailey, O'Cain, Darrow, and, in center front, RA Jones.
